U. S. PAYS $3,600 TO TEACH VETERAN TO WRITE NAME

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—William Blackburn, 72-year-old veteran of Boston, never will shine as a reclusive star. Blackburn, a trainee under the government's plan for vocational study for war veterans, has been trying to learn to write for the last two years and four months. Director Forbes of the War Veterans' Bureau, said it has cost the government exactly $3,600 to teach this man how to write his name.

POLICE INVESTIGATE PLANTING INFERNAL BOMB

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Police are today investigating the explosion of an infernal machine in Ambassador Herrick's residence. They said the machine was apparently a British bomb widely used during the war. It was concealed in a package. No clue to the plotters has been found.

SWAINSBORO, Ga., Oct. 20.—Will Durden was sentenced today to life imprisonment for the murder of Dr. Charles Grimes at Norristown, who he alleged "ruined" his home.

HARRIS ELECTROCUTED AT RALEIGH THIS MORNING

RALEIGH, Oct. 20.—J. T. Harris was electrocuted this morning in the state prison for the murder in Buncombe county on Sept. 3, 1920, of F. W. Monnish, Tuscaloosa, Ala., philanthropist. Governor Morrison refused to interfere, after receiving numerous appeals for commutation based on claims of new evidence.

LOVE IMPORTANCE URGED BY DOCTOR

LONDON, Oct. 20.—"Sex love between husband and wife, apart from parenthood, is something to praise and cherish for its own sake."

This statement was made at Birmingham by Lord Dawson, physician to the King, addressing the Church Congress. He said:

"It is as important to give sex love its place in life as to avoid it. Its over-emphasis by the church is very wrong. It is also wrong to preach an invertebrate and joyless love."

Sir Arbuthnot Lane, eminent surgeon, commenting, said:

"This is one of the most valuable pronouncements. The average man doesn't yet realize the vast part played by sex in everyday life."

NEW MINISTRY IN CONTROL

LONDON, Oct. 20.—After bloodless revolution in Portugal, the new ministry is today reported in full control.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION. NOTES

Two of the busiest men at the Synod are Rev. R. A. Lapsley, pastor of the Howard Memorial church, and Mr. George Howard.

Mr. Lapsley has made an ideal host, looking after everything in detail that goes to make the great Synod a success. He is recognized as one of the ablest ministers in the Synod.

Mr. Howard is always moving quietly among his many guests, giving them a hearty handshake and a most royal welcome. Whenever any one wants to know anything or have anything done, Mr. Howard is there. At this session of the Synod he has served his brethren well and in a Christian spirit.

Words of approval are heard on every hand relative to the speech made last night by a colored pastor.

STEPHENSON TAKES STAND BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 20.—

Edwin R. Stephenson, the Methodist minister who is charged with killing Father James E. Coyle, a Catholic priest, took the stand in his own defense late Wednesday.

Father Coyle, it has been alleged, was shot by Rev. Stephenson because of the latter's belief that his daughter Ruth was being weaned away by the Catholic church. On the day of the shooting, the witness said, he believed Ruth had run away, but he was unaware that she had married Pedro Gussman, a Catholic.

Describing his visit to Father Coyle, Stephenson said:

"I told him my daughter had been away from home and would appreciate it if he would tell me where she was. He said he did not know anything about it."

Rev. Stephenson testified that he did not intend going to the rectory until he saw Father Coyle sitting on the porch. When he entered he sat down in a chair, he stated, until he was struck by the priest after, he said, he had called Father Coyle a "dirty dog" on being informed that the priest had joined his daughter's wedding to a Catholic.

He jumped back when the priest struck him the first blow, the witness said, and a second blow knocked him down. Then the defendant declared Father Coyle kicked him in the chest. "The priest put his hand toward his pocket," Stephenson said, "and I could not see whether he had a pistol or not. When he did this I fired."

Mr. Stephenson said he had had trouble with his daughter, but had not treated her.

CAN'T POSTPONE STRIKE

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The strike cannot be postponed, but can be settled, Big Five officials said today.
