Methodist Orphanage Class.

The singing class from the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh will give a sacred concert in St. James M. E. church next Sunday night at eight o'clock.

The public is invited to come out and hear these orphan children sing.

Those who have heard this sacred concert speak of it in the highest terms. The children will arrive Sunday afternoon and leave on Monday morning.

Hallow'een Party.

Mrs. Geo. Fountain entertained a few friends Tuesday night with a Hallow'een party. The house was appropriately decorated with black cats, witches, owls and Hallow'een colors of orange and black. Two grotesque faces cut from pumpkins greeted the guests from the porch. Jack lanterns flitted about in the yard, giving a gruesome appearance. Cook was enjoyed for a while and various Hallow'een games were played. A ghost met the guests at the door and presented each with a tall Hallow'een cap which they wore throughout the evening, adding to the appearance of the attractive rooms. After a delicious salad course was served, the guests departed, declaring they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

Pitt-Moseley.

Miss Mary Irene Pitt of Pinetops and Mr. Sam Moseley of near Fountain were married late Wednesday evening in Rocky Mount, and left immediately afterward on a honeymoon trip to the State Fair at Raleigh, and will go to Richmond and other points of interest.

Miss Pitt is the attractive daughter of Hon. E. L. Pitt, mayor of Pineops, and Mrs. Pitt, and has a large circle of friends who will wish her much happiness. Mr. Moseley is a successful young business man near Fountain, where they will make their home upon their return.

Moving His Market.

O. O. Boykin is making repairs and changing his surroundings in his grocery store to give room for the market department.

This department will be located to the rear and when placed will be an attractive feature of his present grocery store.
