Baptist Hallway's Party Postponed.
The Hallway's party that was to have been given last night by the Missionary Society of the Baptist church was postponed until the 15th account of the weather. The committee has been busy since then in preparing for the party and it is hoped that every one who had an invitation for that date will be able to attend. It is believed that the evening party will be successful and the ladies are expected to be very well represented.
