A LOCAL NEWSPAPER

The average man knows but little about the cost attached to the publication of a newspaper.

Not one man in a thousand, when he has placed on his breakfast table any morning newspaper, realizes how much brain, energy, money and hard work it has taken to place it there.

And the same thing applies to the local newspaper, whether it be a daily or a weekly.

It takes a hard day's work every day to place in the hands of its subscribers any daily newspaper.

In towns like Tarboro the patronage of a local newspaper is limited to a certain extent. No paper can run on subscriptions alone. In the State of North Carolina it is impossible to find a college or a hospital that is supported alone by tuitions or fees.

And so it is with the newspapers. It can not be supported alone by a subscription list.
The advertising patronage of a newspaper is its biggest asset, and on the other hand these rates for advertising space is based on the subscription list.

The question may be asked, what good does the merchant derive from advertising? Just exactly what he should get out of it, publicity for his business, and the continual reminder to the people. What is his business, where and what kind it is.

A merchant who does not know how to advertise had better keep out of a newspaper, if he doesn't want to throw away his money.

Stale, lifeless, meaningless advertisements are injurious, rather than beneficial, because they are indicative of the man and his business. Whereas live, active advertisements with "zip" and "vim" show up the business and the business man in the true light.

Beside the matters of subscription and advertisement what is a local newspaper worth to a town in dollars and cents? This is hard to answer.

It is easy to disparage the efforts of the local paper, because it in some way does not meet the exact approval of this person or that person. It would be impossible to find any one man in Tarboro, that suites everybody. Just so it is impossible for any one paper to please everybody. We are not all made alike, neither do we all think alike.

The local newspaper is one of the town's biggest assets. It keeps the outside world in touch with each other. The biggest booster any town has is its newspaper.

WILL HAVE A NEW HOME.

In purchasing the old Pamlico building, the Edgecombe Building and Loan Association has secured a good bargain and an ideal place to do business.

Mr. M. G. Clark who bid in this building for $10,500 stated that the officers of the association had in this building a splendid bargain. This building is already equipped. It has a vault and beautiful banking furniture worth at least $3,500.

ARMS CONFERENCE

CHAPTER VIII.

Japanese Problems and Why Japan Wants the Arms Conference Conditioned.

By F. HUNTER CRECH.

In the "Baltimore American" for September 26, 1921, on the first page, are given ten reasons why Japan balks at unconditional arms parley:

1. Because expansion is absolutely necessary for the survival of a population of 79,000,000 Japanese, hemmed within the borders of an island territory.

2. Because of her determination to hold on to the 750,000 miles of land area and to perpetuate her domination over more than a million miles of seas that she has acquired or seized since the Japanese-Russian war, ten years ago.

3. Because she is determined to provide a larger field for her rapidly growing merchant marine, through which she hopes to dictate the trade conditions of the Far East and the Pacific.

4. Because she will demand noninterference with her program for exploiting the natural and commercial resources of northern China, Korea, Manchuria, Mongolia and Siberia, whose population, aggregating nearly 33,000,000, are defenseless against her huge army and splendid navy.

5. Because of her ambition to dominate, through the application of imperialistic policies, the political and economic fortunes of the countries she has coerced with her military machine and from which she must secure raw materials to gratify her ambition for world power.

6. Because she is determined to find homes and occupations, from which she will greatly profit, for the teeming millions who struggle for a livelihood in the overcrowded territory of the imperial island empire.

7. Because of her confidence that, by the application of force, she will finally compel the assimilation of the 30,000,000 of alien population of Formosa, Shantung, Mongolia, Saghalien, and the islands in the Pacific mandated to her by the Versailles treaty and the league of nations.

8. Because she will demand the fullest liberty in fortifying the islands now administered by her as a means of defense against any attempt to deprive her of the territory she has illegally seized or to curtail her dice need for expansion.

9. Because of her demand that other nations shall grant racial equality to Japanese subjects seeking homes and occupations outside of the imperial Japanese empire.

10. Because of her determination to resist any encroachment by the United States or any other power

Are You a Weak and Ailing Woman?

Beauty and Health Go Hand in Hand

Fort Thomas, Ky. — "Several years ago I had become so poor and weak from trouble of a feminine character that I could not walk around in my room without holding to the furniture or having some one to assist me. I was so nervous at times I could hardly endure any one walking across the floor. Finally I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and in three months' time I gained 20 pounds. I continued taking the medicine until I was entirely well. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription certainly saved my life." — Mrs. Laura Klenfer, 15 Oak St.
Health is most important to you. Do not neglect it. Obtain this Prescription of Dr. Pierce's now, in liquid or tablets, from your druggist, or send 10c for trial
