LOST—TAKEN FROM THE CORNER of St. Patrick's street and E. Park avenue, between midnight and day, last Thursday night, a five-passenger Ford, model 1919; State license number 94-352; no number on engine, because it had been chisid off. Lining of top torn. Right front mudguard broken; one small and one large bulb in lamps; scratches like striking matches on right of light switch; top fastened to windshield on right side with wire instead of strap; front felt mat on rear floor; striped cushion on front seat; hood fits badly, so that back clamps do not catch well; front spring recently put in; no shock absorbers; celluloid broken out of window in rear top; radiator leaks constantly; under front cushion a measuring stick and the wire contraption used to see if you need oil; in box under rear seat, two jacks, two pumps, some torn curtains, two pieces of spring to take off tires with, one front inner tube in a cardboard box, one badly torn inner tube loose, and a lot of trash of various kinds; oil can sitting under hood, in front of carburetor. Whole cary very shabby, scratched, and weather beaten from going two and a half years all over Edgecombe county. The car was used solely for charitable purpose, and there is no money to be had to buy another. There is no money to pay a reward for its return, but if the man who took it will bring it back, I will give him a Morocco bound, India paper Bible and some good advice, and will not have him prosecuted.
