BIBLE GEMS.

Repent therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.—Acts, 3:10.

A new heart also will I give you and a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.—John 5:24.

Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature; old things have passed away. Behold all things are become new.—II Cor. 5:17.

Things at the conference are getting in a very critical stage. Japan seems to be playing a big hand. It is stated by those who ought to know that with her rests the success or failure of the conference. The little island of Guam is now the bone of contention. The little piece of land once taken for commercial purposes now looms up as a mighty factor in the world disarmament conference. As one writer has expressed it, Guam is the nigger in the wood pile.

The delegates of this country to the disarmament conference have not forgotten the way Mr. Wilson was treated in the Versailles treaty matter. The president may make treaties and the secretary of state may make recommendations, and the delegates may take definite action, but it is the United States at last that can turn the tricks. And the delegates at Washington at this time well know this to be a fact. The blunders of the republican party in its conduct toward Mr. Wilson and the League of Nations will hang on for years to come as a drawback to the material interests of our land.

In one of the Norfolk papers is published an immense head line stating that by bad management of the peanut growers of Virginia and North Carolina had lost millions of dollars this fall.

In the first place, the growers do not believe a word of this report. This is about the first time that the buyers and speculators have ever been so good as to venture an opinion or any advice whatsoever. Generally they buy and say nothing. As it is now, they are doing a heap of talking and no buying because they can't get the peanuts at their prices.

The Philippine Islands will for a while yet remain as possessions of the United States. Major General Wood makes this recommendation, and in his personal report says:

"We are convinced that it would be a betrayal of the Philippine people, a misfortune to the American people, a distinct step backward in the path of progress and a discreditable neglect to our nation's duty were we to withdraw from the islands and terminate our relationship there without giving the Filipinos the best chance possible to have an orderly and permanently stable government."

The Bluebeard Landra, who has been on trial for his life in France for killing a dozen or more women was about the only person at the trial that did not look serious. A man who has the nerve to kill twelve women and cremate them, certainly ought not to lose his nerve when facing a jury or the judges who try him.

Tarboro Southerner compares Cyclone Mack's praying ability to that of Bishop John "Kilgore." We wonder if The Southerner can mean Bishop Jack, lately of Durham?—Raleigh Times.

The editor of The Times is evidently among the thousands now reading the reports of Cyclone Mack's meeting in Tarboro. He, however, was reading hurriedly when he stopped to write this paragraph. The Southerner did not compare Mack's praying to that of Bishop John Kilgore, lately of Durham fame, by the way, but compared the praying of Malone, the negro song leader, to that of Bishop Kilgore. A typographical error is responsible for the "Kilgore" but so far as the comparison goes we maintain it was good. Bishop Jawn put more Afro American flavor in his heavenly petitions than any white man we ever heard pray.

PROCTOR MILL IS DAMAGED BY FIRE EARLY THURSDAY

The Proctor mill at Grimesland was destroyed by fire early Thursday morning, according to reports reaching Greenville during the day, and only desperate and determined efforts by a volunteer bucket brigade prevented the flames spreading to other buildings. The high wind at the time of the fire made the work of the firemen harder. The loss is estimated at several thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance.

Daniel-Edward, Marriage.

This morning at 9:45 o'clock in Calvary church, a very pretty wedding was solemnized, the parties being Miss Lucy Gray Edwards, daughter of Mr. W. G. Edwards, of Tarboro, and Mr. Seabury Treadwell Daniel, of Duke, N. C., Rev. Bertram E. Brown officiating.

The ushers were Mr. Sol Edwards, brother of the bride, and Mr. J. S. Brown, brother-in-law of the bride. Mr. Claudius Miller was best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. George Pennington, Little Mildred Brown, niece of the bride, was the only attendant. She was dressed in apricot taffeta with black velvet poke hat and carried a basket filled with sweetheart roses.

Mr. Daniel holds a responsible position with the Erwin Cotton Mills of Duke and is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Blount Daniel, of Wilson.

The bride wore a traveling suit of sorrento blue mousyne with accessories to match, and carried a white prayer book showered with valley lilies.

The out-of-town guests were Miss Minnie Boykin of Wilson, Miss Clell Moore of Wilson, Miss Lillie Fettes, of New Bern, Miss Ruth Greider of Winston-Salem, Mrs. E. G. Rawlins of Raleigh, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Rawlins of Wilson; Messrs. D. W. Frank and Louis Thorpe, and Mrs. Ed Muse of Rocky Mount.

The Southerner wishes them much happiness.

Your Neighbor's Boy

THAT BOY of your neighbors will surely win success. In fact he is practicing for success now. It is a good plan to practice if you want to learn to do any thing well—so this boy is training for success. His parents know that it costs money to keep this lad in clothes, etc. They find that it is a good scheme to give this expense money to the boy and let him plan how to get the best results with it. If he spends too much one month he feels the pinch during the month that follows. He is anxious to earn all he can. He thinks before he spends and a neat savings account is growing as further proof of the happy future of the boy. And a program like that will bring larger success to any one who really desires to win. How about your own boy? Think it over.
