CONETOE NEWS.

Mr. L. T. White from Raleigh was a visitor in Conetoe last week.

The sewing circle of Conetoe met with Mrs. N. B. Dawson, Jr., Tuesday evening. Delicious refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served. The club will meet next time with Mrs. F. J. Dozier.

The missionary society of Methodist church has planned a bazaar for the benefit of the Methodist church to be held in the old barber shop, Friday afternoon and evening. Many useful Christmas presents will be on display for sale, at reasonable prices. Every lady in No. 2 township should visit this shop. Refreshments also will be served.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. N. B. Dawson, Jr., for Monday afternoon, when she entertains at a kitchen shower in honor of Mesdames Rush Stancill and Paul Warren.

Mr. Henry Brown, Misses Elizabeth and Annie W. Tolbert, Frances Warren and Pearl Southerland motored to Washington Saturday.

Work on the beautiful bungalows of Messrs. Job Holland and Paul Warren is being pushed forward.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Stancill are occupying their new home.

The appearance of our town is being much improved by these new buildings.

Mrs. J. E. Bulluck, Miss Mamie and Mr. Felton Bulluck motored to Rocky Mount Thursday to attend the funeral of Mr. Tom Bulluck, who fell dead on the streets Wednesday.

OF C. RETURNING CASH TO LOCAL MERCHANTS

J. D. Foster, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce stated today that he had returned to local merchants more than two hundred dollars, representing overcharges in freight bills. These adjustments have started coming in rapidly and it is expected that by the middle of January more than five hundred dollars will have been refunded the local merchants and manufacturers. Since the contract recently entered into by the Chamber of Commerce, the local shippers receive an additional ten per cent on these refunds.

PIPIN' HOT TEA ROOM MAKES SPLENDID SHOW

The Pipin Hot Tea Room opened at the Beck Electric Store by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church is now ready for all patrons. Anything in light lunches can be secured at the Tea Room at reasonable prices. If you have not visited the Tea Room you will profit by doing so, and at the same time help in a good cause.

U. D. C. Chapter Entertained.

The William Dorsey Pender Chapter was delightfully entertained by will of J. B. Stator, Book 1, page 343.

The said deed of trust so requiring the above property will be offered for sale in the order named and sale will be discontinued when an amount sufficient to discharge the debt secured by said deed of trust has been realized.

This December 3rd, 1921.
GEORGE A. HOLDERNESS,
dec 5 to jan 11 Trustee.

Mrs. J. G. Raby at the regular monthly meeting. Quite a large number was present.

Mrs. John L. Bridgers opened the meeting with prayer and made short talk, giving outline of the coming year's work.

Mrs. R. P. Ho't, district director, gave an interesting account of the general convention and requested the members to subscribe to the "Women of the South in War Times," and work for the Jefferson Davis Memorial, which has been given entirely to the U. D. C. to finish at an early date.

Mrs. Arah Bass was made chairman of the two committees: The Soldiers' War Record committee and the Ways and Means committee.

Much regret was expressed at the illness of our reporter, Mrs. Frank Powell.

The hostess served delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Attention, Candidates G. F. S.

There will be a meeting of the candidates branch of the Girls' Friendly Society on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, at the home of Miss Kate Cheshire, director.

A full attendance is desired to make plans for a Christmas celebration.
