"HOOP-LA."

The services of the John B. Rogers Producing Co. have been secured by the D. A. R., under whose auspices will be staged Hoop-La, a new departure in modern minstrelsy, Jan. 12, 1922.

This 1921-22 model entertainment is composed of entirely new and original music, dances and comedy and is really a pocket edition of the New York Hippodrome, in that the entertainment caters to every class of the amusement loving public.

The entertainment gets away from the old style first part, the scene being laid aboard the ship Hoop La, where the officers and crew are entertaining King Poo Poo and the royal family. The pick of male voices of Tarboro will be heard in this number and a series of solo, duo and chorus dancing will share honors with vocal numbers and the first part finale is a sure fire climax, featuring the king's wild women dancers who with the king and queen take the first curtain of the performance.

The Olio is composed of "A Study in Black and White" a statutory act; "Rag Time Wedding," a comedy darky jazz wedding set to music with dancing thruout; "A Great Big Boogie," a very pretty and graceful chorus singing and dancing act; "Barham & Bailed Hay Circus," depicting the "front door" of a burlesque side show, and "The Death of Saloon," a classic chorus dancing number, closing with a burlesque on the Salome Dance and the Dance of the Seven Veils.

An experienced minstrel man will stage the production and special scenery and costumes will be supplied by the John B. Rogers Producing Co. Rehearsals will begin Thursday, Dec. 23, and we have no hesitancy in saying Hoop La will be the greatest of its kind ever staged by amateurs in Tarboro.

Walter Bass and Wilson Davis, business managers.

Celebrate Their 51st Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Liles celebrated the 51st anniversary of their wedding last Sunday which was Xmas day.

They celebrated their golden wedding last year. At this celebration Sunday no one was present but the immediate members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Liles came to Tarboro to live many years ago from Nash county, and since that time they have made a host of friends in our midst who wish them yet many more years of happiness. The Southerner wishes to join in extending to them its best wishes for a happy and prosperous new year.

Health Certificates for Marriage

A colored man walked into the Register of Deeds office and presented a health certificate for marriage. Upon examination of this certificate it was found that it was more than seven days old and the contracting parties were told that no marriage license could be issued, but that they would have to go back to the doctor and have another certificate made to receive their license.

Those who get doctors' certificates will have to present them to the register of deeds within seven days from the date of its issuance.
