LOCAL SOCIAL ITEMS

LIST YOUR TAXES.

The month of May is gradually going away and those who have not listed their taxes would do well to do so at once. The list-takers are hard at work now, and there is always a rush at the end of the month.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Curry wish to thank their many friends for their kindnesses during the sickness of their father, Mr. J. A. Curry. They wish to assure their friends that all these kindnesses were appreciated.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK'S GIRLS' POULTRY CLUB

Mr. M. G. Mann has received sixty thoroughbred Rhode Island chickens that he will distribute to the members of the Girls' Poultry Club of Edgecombe county. He will in a few days receive another shipment, and when the last arrive, The Southerner will give a full list of the members of this club and the number of chickens assigned to them.

These chickens are given to these girls with the understanding that from the offspring a sufficient number are to be sold and from these proceeds the girls are then to pay the first price of the chickens they now receive.

ARRIVED FROM NORFOLK

Mrs. T. G. Long of Norfolk arrived last night to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. Rosenbaum and Mrs. Frank Carlisle.

TARBORO MILK PLANT HAS A NATIONAL REPUTATION

In the June issue of the American City Magazine will be a photograph and a full-page article of the Tarboro milk plant. The article will be prepared by the associate editor of this magazine.

This information was received today from Mr. J. H. Jacobs, who recently received a letter from the editor of the American City Magazine.

Tarboro's milk plant has made for itself a national reputation and is attracting attention from everywhere.

It will be remembered that a year or so ago the Ladies' Home Journal carried a long write-up of this plant and letters have been received from many distant states asking for information as to the operation of the Tarboro milk plant.

Mr. Jacobs has made arrangements with Hightower & Howell to have pictures made for use in this magazine.

NAMES ADDED TO LIST OF SHRINERS HERE

In giving the list of Shriners at Tarboro, the following names were omitted: D. H. Parker, J. P. Bunn, T. Cherry, J. D. Foster, J. J. Lane, Haywood Taylor, Alfred Tait and T. L. Fenn.

FLOOD VICTIMS MUST BE RATIONED 6 WEEKS LONGER
