NOTICE OF RE-SALE
Notice is hereby given by the undersigned trustees that the property of F. P. Rawlings which was sold by them on April 1, 1922, and resold May 27, 1922 by virtue of power of sale conferred upon them by two deeds of trust, one from F. P. Rawlings to F. E. Winslow, trustee, recorded in Nash County, Book 237, page 210, and in Edgcombe Registry, Book 237, page 422, and one deed of trust from F. P. Rawlings to T. T. Thorne, trustee, recorded in Nash County, Book 261, page 11, and in Edgcombe County, Book 237, page 443, after due advertisement has been ordered by the Clerk of Superior Court of Nash County to be again resold under the provisions of C. S. Sec. 2591, the bid at the last sale having been raised and bond given as prescribed by law.

The said F. E. Winslow and T. T. Thorne, trustees, will, therefore, by virtue of the deeds of trust above mentioned, and the powers therein conferred upon them, and also under the authority of the said order of the Clerk, offer for sale at public auction for cash, to the highest bidder, for the satisfaction of the indebtedness secured in said deeds of trust which is in default, at twelve o'clock noon on Saturday, June 17, 1922 in the county line of Nash and Edgcombe Counties, on Main Street, between the Planters National Bank corner and the National Bank of Rocky Mount, the following property described in said deeds of trust, to wit:

All the right, title and interest conveyed to said trustees in said deeds of trust or in either of them, the dower lands of Mrs. Kate T. Rawlings, more specifically described and bounded as follows:

Lot No. 5 included in the dower state of Mrs. Kate T. Rawlings described as follows: Adjoining the an Williams lot in the town of Battleboro, Nash County, containing one hundred square yards, more or less, and is fully described in deed from J. H. Herbert and wife, to W. Braswell and F. M. Rawlings recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds of Nash County.

Lot No. 7 described as follows: One lot of land in South Whitakers Township, Nash County, adjoining the lands of Hobgood & Co., J. H. Whitehead, and described in deed by F. M. Neal to F. H. Rawlings, recorded in Nash County Registry, Book 126, page 261.

Lot No. 18 described as follows: One lot of land in the town of Battleboro Nash County, the same that was conveyed to A. Wright on June 16, 1883, and the same described in deed recorded in Book 54, page 337; Nash Registry, and is the same also described in deed, Book 118, page 699, said Registry.
Lot No. 14 described as follows: One lot of land in the town of Battleboro Nash County, situated west of the right of way of A. C. L. Railroad Co. and near the depot of said company, and is the same lands conveyed by J. W. Bruce to F. M. Rawlings by deed recorded in Book 64, page 183, Nash Registry.
Lot No. 6 described as follows: One lot of land in Nash County, near the town of Battleboro, on the south side of the public road leading from Battleboro to Nashville, containing three and one-half acres and is the same land conveyed to F. M. Rawlings by Chas. A. Taylor et al, by deed of record in Nash Registry, Book 28, page 241, to which reference is made. A farm situated in Nash County, containing 133 acres, the boundary lines thereof beginning at a stake in the corner of lot No. 2 in Hart's line; thence N 87° and one-half degrees W 37 poles to a post oak, Hart's corner; thence S 48 degrees W 37 poles to a hickory, Hart's line; thence S 44 degrees W 97 poles to a stake on Beech Run; thence down Beech Run; to a gum, Hart's corner; thence S 27 degrees W 62 poles to a willow on mud-prong; thence to and down Beech Run to a stringwood tree, corner of lot No. 2; thence with the line of Lot No. 2 north 260 poles to the beginning. The foregoing land is an part of the John F. Taylor farm that was included in the dower of Mrs. Kate T. Rawlings, the foregoing description being taken from the description of such dower as given in Book of Orders & Decrees, Vol. 8, page 213, Nash Registry, to which reference is here by given for further description thereof.
Lot No. 12, described as follows: One tract of land situated in the town of Battleboro, Edgcombe County, near the Battleboro depot, on the north side of the County road, containing one-fourth of an acre, more or less and is the same land conveyed by John F. Taylor and wife to W. T. Braswell, and F. M. Rawlings by deed in Book 32, page 177, Edgcombe Registry.
All the right, title, interest and estate that the said F. P. Rawlings had at the dates of said trust deeds in and to the lands now constituting the dower estate of Mrs. Kate T. Rawlings, which said lands included in said dower will be found recorded in Vol. 8, page 213, Book of Orders and Decrees, Office of Clerk of Superior Court, Nash County, except part of the said lands which was conveyed to M. C. Braswell by T. T. Thorne, trustee, Mrs. Kate T. Rawlings, F. P. Rawlings et al, by deed recorded in Book 2, page 254, Nash Registry, and all the lot of land that was conveyed by T. T. Thorne commissioner, to the Town of Battleboro, it being the same that is described in sub-section A of paragraph four of the amended petition filed in the Special Proceedings entitled "Mrs. T. Rawlings, administratrix of F. M. Rawlings, deceased, against F. P. Rawlings et al", recorded in Book of Orders & Decrees, Vol. 9, page 249, Nash Registry.
The interest in said lands of F. P. Rawlings includes that which came to him by inheritance and also that which was conveyed to him by deed of H. E. Brewer and wife, June 28, 1918, by deed recorded in Book 239, page 439, Nash Registry, and also recorded in Edgcombe County, said deed purporting to convey to F. P. Rawlings the interest of Mrs. Marietta James and Howard K. Rawlings.
The above property will be sold as a whole, and the bidding will start at $4,455.13, the amount of the guaranteed bid. Fifteen per cent of the purchase price must be deposited with the trustees within one hour after the sale, balance to be paid after confirmation by the Clerk. Upon failure to make the deposit required, the next highest bidder will be declared to be the purchaser.
This the 30th day of May, 1922.
