PERSONAL BRIEFS

Here to See the Game.
Judge Horton, president of the Eastern Carolina League, was here yesterday to witness the game between Tarboro and Farmville.

Lawn Party Tonight.
Do not forget the lawn party tonight in the Town Common for the benefit of the senior class of the Tarboro graded schools to enable them to pay for the Tar-bo-rah. It will be a bad thing on our community if the young people who have worked so hard to get through the graded school to be forced to go down in their own pockets and pay a bill that should be paid by the public.

This class book, the Tar-bo-rah, is a credit to any class and our people should rally to the support of these young folks who had it published.

At Wrightsville Beach.
Miss Mamie Bryan went to Wrightsville Beach yesterday to be the guest of Mrs. Lawrence Sprunt for a week or more.

In Murfreesboro.
Rev. E. B. Slaughter and wife and children went to Murfreesboro yesterday on a short visit to friends.

Miss Mary Louise Worsley is spending her vacation at Virginia Beach.

Miss Pearl Rowe and Mr. Archie Hoag are visiting their sister, Mrs. H. G. Alley, in Petersburg, Va.

Mr. C. E. Rowe of Petersburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. P. Beatty.

Miss Mary G. Rowe and niece, Julia Meiba Alley, have returned to their home in Petersburg.

Mrs. G. T. Williams and daughters are visiting in Wrightsville.

Mrs. Sue Alexander and children of Wilmington are here the guests of her sister, Mrs. L. E. Norfleet.

Would it be called a ball game? Seems to be the popular query.

Mrs. Archie Knight, who recently gave birth to a fine son at the Edgecombe General Hospital, is getting along finely, also "son."

Mrs. Joe Danford of Crisp, who has been critically ill following an operation at the Edgecombe General Hospital, is thought to be holding her own, altho seriously ill at the present.

Mrs. Latham Thigpen and son of Richmond and Mrs. John Thigpen and son of Williamston are the guests at Mapleton of Mrs. B. F. Shelton.

BUDGET

TOWN OF TARBORO, NORTH CAROLINA 1922-1923.

Public notice is hereby given that a BUDGET containing the estimated expenditures and estimated revenue of the Town of Tarboro, N. C., for fiscal year ending May 31st, 1923, had been prepared as required by law and is now on file at office of City Clerk for public inspection.

This Budget carries a tax rate of .77c for bonds, interest and sinking fund, and a rate of .23c for general purposes, making a total tax rate of $1.00.

Said Budget will be passed on at regular meeting of the Board on Aug. 14th, 1922. All citizens of the town are invited to inspect Budget at office of City Clerk and to be present at above mentioned meeting of the Board.

WILL HE TAKE A VACATION?

MEN take vacations—go hunting, fishing, touring—where they cannot be reached. If your Executor is away and there comes a SUDDEN need for his immediate presence and signature—what is going to happen to your estate?

BUT we take no vacations. We are here ready for business at any time. Name us Executor of your Estate and we will always be here to look after it. Cotton and tobacco interests, for instance, require the most careful attention. Won't they need the same careful attention when you are gone?
