KLAN OFFICIAL HELD SID EDWARDS AND BATTLEBORD MAN FOR FRAUD CHARGE FRIEL ALLEN FREED RUN DOWN BY CAR

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 6 .- Denial that Edward Young Clarke, Imperial Wizard protem of the Ku Klux Klan, had used the mails to effect a scheme to defraud, for which Clarke was indicted in federal court late yester- courthouse at Hillsville, Va., in 1912, day, was contained in a statement of the imperial konciliam, ruling the body of the klan, made public here. C'wke was released under bond of five hundred dollars.

The indictment charges Clarke has collected money from certain members and officers of the kln on the pretense that the funds would be klansmen, and that the sums were in excess of the amount required and converted to his personal use and benefit.
