North Carolina, Edgecombe County

Notice is hereby given that on Saturday, Dec. 16th at 11:00 o'clock A. M., before the court house door at Tarboro, above county and state, the undersigned trustees, acting by virtue of authority conferred upon them by a certain deed of trust executed to them by John A. Turnage and wife, Elizabeth Turnage, of date March 20, 1922, recorded in book 237, page 491, Edgecombe registry, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described property, to wit: That certain tract or parcel of land in the city of Rocky Mount, Edgecombe county, N. C., described as follows: Beginning at a state of point at the northern intersection of Branch street and Redgate Avenue; running thence north along the eastern line of Branch street 135 feet to a stake; thence in an easterly direction parallel with Redgate Avenue, 200 feet to a stake; thence south parallel with Branch street 150 feet to Redgate Avenue, thence westerly with said Redgate Avenue 200 feet to the beginning. Said lot being 150 x 200 feet and being the same property conveyed to said John A. Turnage by deed recorded in book 172, page 372, Edgecombe Registry.

Said sale will be made by virtue of power of sale in said instrument described, the undersigned trustee having been called upon to exercise said power by the holder of the notes secured by said deed of trust which are in default.

This 15th day of November, 1922.

There is nothing I could say after you read the following criticisms:

THEY SAY—

"Handsomely and artistically done ... magnificent ... that indefinable touch that makes Griffith Supreme in motion pictures." (N. Y. Mail).

"'Dream Street' grips the spectators ... not just movie stuff ... characters men something ... scenes which hold the eye and command the interest—The N. Y. Times.

"Scenes that might have come from the brush of Beardsley ... 'Dream Street' in popularity, should be a 'Main Street' of the films."—The N. Y. Sun.

"... should be the envy of any producer in this country or any other."—The N. Y. Post.

"There is distinction in anything done by Mr. Griffith ... too high praise cannot be given ... You cannot escape a thrill."—N. Y. Evening World.

"'Dream Street' is a story of novel twists ... beautiful photography ... abound in contrasts ... it is well worth seeing."—N. Y. Evening Journal.

"It is superb ... moments only a great soul could produce ... moments of inspiration ... these are not Burke's but Griffith's, the ablest director of motion pictures in the world."—S. Jay Kauffman.

"Haunting and lovely pictures ... happy ending ... characters live in a definite and vivid sense ... witchery increased by musical scoring."—Allison Smith in

Scene from ... D. W. Griffith's ... "Dream Street"

The N. Y. Globe.
"Here is witchery of the camera as not other director can evoke it ... beautiful scenes fairly swim before the delightful eye ... touch such as artists achieve in great paintings ... Griffith's sheer genius revealed again."—The N. Y. Evening Telegram.
"As Full of surprises as a Xmas pudding ... one of the artistic triumphs of the year."—Louella Parsons in The N. Y. Morning Telegraph.
