

Good Sense—Good Appearance and Good Cheer

—a mighty fine Christmas trio!

YOU'LL FEEL BETTER IN EVERY WAY WITH A NEW SUIT ON CHRISTMAS DAY

For women who like their men-folks to look well and for men who like to look well for their women-folks, we recommend a thorough consideration of that most useful of Christmas gifts—a new suit. Whether you buy it as a gift for himself or she has him buy it—a gift from her isn't so important as the net result—the fact that he will have a gift that will help him do full justice to himself not simply on Christmas, but for months following.

But just make sure that its a Clothcraft—The suit of unexcelled value.

Sale of E. L. Daughtridge Business Lot

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe county, made in a suit therein pending entitled "W. M. Daughtridge, J. C. Daughtridge, and Millard F. Jones, administrators of E. L. Daughtridge, and Mrs. Mary W. Daughtridge, and others, ex parte," the undersigned will, on Wednesday, January 10th, 1923, at 11 o'clock a. m., offer for sale, on the premises, at public auction, to the highest bidder, that certain lot of land situate in the city of Rocky Mount, county of Edgecombe, state of North Carolina, and more particularly described and defined as follows:

Beginning at the southeast corner of the office building brick wall, Dr. Galloway's corner, which is 270.8 feet east of Rose street and 10.25 feet north of the north curb line of Tarboro street, the eastern edge of brick wall of the office building having been placed on the dividing line by survey made August 12, 1913, by Jno. J. Wells; thence along the northern property line of Tarboro street and at an interior angle of 87 degrees 20' with the Galloway line and in a northwesterly direction 94.27 feet to the center of 17" brick party wall, Speight's corner, which is 11.4 feet north of curb line; thence along the center of said brick wall and same line extended a true course N. 53 degrees; 0' E. 202 feet to the northern line of the livery stable and wagon shed building, thence along the northern edge of livery stable and wagon shed building in a south easterly direction 94.5 feet to the Galloway line; thence along the Galloway line a true course S. 53 degrees 10' W. 208.9 feet to the beginning.

This property will be subdivided into smaller lots and persons wishing to see plot of said lands may do so by calling at the office of J. P. Bunn, attorney. The land will be sold first in smaller lots and after selling said smaller lots the privilege is reserved to offer two or more or all of said lots together to the end that sale may be reported to the court which brings the most money.

Terms of sale are one-four cash in report and confirmation of sale, and the balance in five equal annual installments, payable 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 years, respectively from date of sale, the deferred payments to be evidenced by notes bearing six per cent interest from date of sale, interest payable annually, and the title to the property to be retained until purchase price is paid in full. The purchaser is to have option to pay the whole of the purchase price cash in report and confirmation of sale, in which event there shall be a cash discount of five per cent from said purchase price. The purchaser shall be required to pay ten per cent on the day of sale as evidence of good faith.
