ASHEVILLE MESSENGER.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER—DEVOTED TO POLITICS, RELIGION, EDUCATION, INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS, AGRICULTURE, SCIENCE, FOREIGN & DOMESTIC NEWS, AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Vol. II—No. 1. ASHEVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1850. WHOLE NO. 520.

JAMES M. ESTES,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS,

The Messenger will be published 50 times a year, every Wednesday, at $2 in advance, $2 50 after the expiration of six months, or $3 00 at the end of the Year.

To Clubs and Ministers at $1 50 in advance, and $2 00 after 6 months.

Advertisements inserted at $1 for 12 lines, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

The Clubs of the Messenger will be furnished for $5 75 or 6 for $10, 10 for $16 25, or 16 for $24 if paid in advance.

$10 Worth of every kind neatly executed at short notice, and on the most reasonable terms.

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the Editor.

No subscription received for less than 6 months.

All communications must be post paid.

Postmasters are held responsible for neglect in giving notice when persons refuse to take their papers.

Letters must be POST PAID.

AGENTS.

T. W. TAYLOR, is our Agent for the County of Henderson.
James W. Bost, is our Agent for Charleston
William Taylor, for Baltimore.
A. H. Seofield, 107 Walnut, for N. York.
W. H. Palmer, M. D., Pulaski, Tenn.
William Wallis, Esq., for Raleigh.
S. H. Woodfin, for Buncombe.
We have Blanks for sale by—
Eli H. Thomas, for Haywood.
S. G. H. Thomas, for Cherokee.
J. C. Whitson, for M'Dowell.
Ripley & Patton, for Henderson.
Wm. C. Berry, for Macon.
E. E. Greenlee, for Rutherford.
M. P. Pollard, for Yancey.

Table Department.

The Wife's Influence.

A woman like her husband in his power to make or mar her happiness. She may be the means of his greatest earthly pleasure, or of his most poignant misery. She may be the source of his greatest earthly comfort, or of his most bitter disappointment. She may be the means of his greatest earthly happiness, or of his most bitter misery. She may be the means of his greatest earthly happiness, or of his most bitter misery. She may be the means of his greatest earthly happiness, or of his most bitter misery