AGED AND ONCE FAMOUS JOCKEY FOUND DEAD WITH THROAT CUT

"Si" Smith, horse Trainer and one time Jockey for Mr. M. H. White of Hertford takes own Life by slitting Throat from Ear to Ear-Found dead under a tree in yard of Mr. Nathan Gregory near Shiloh.

Mr. Silas Smith, well know as a horse trainer throughout this section was found dead under a tree in the yard of Mr. Nathan McKell, gave a reception last Gregory of Shiloh yesterday af

Smith was training horses for Mr. W. R. Sawyer of this city on the farm of Mr. Gregory, the Shiloh race track being situated on this farm.

Mr. Gregory's family left home yesterday and on returning in the afternoon found Smith, with a great gash in his throat, on a bench under one of the trees in the yard. He was quite dead.

Seeing his evident need, Gray swam out to him with Thursday, accompanied by her a life preserver; and with this he was able to keep afloat until C. W. Harrison.

Finding himself encumbered by Jones farm, returned to Norfolk trousers, in the pockets of which were five dollars and a watch. This, so far as could be learned. besides of course the damage to the boat, was the extent of loss resulting from the accident.

Those on the boat, besides the two alrady mentioned, were: D. A. Cox. R. O. Bagley, J. W. Mackey, J. F. Gray, Sam Aydlett and two colored men.

The boat, we are told, has been towed to the landing and is again ready for service.
