COMMENCEMENT AT COLUMBIA

Columbia, N. C., June 10th—The spacious auditorium of Tyrrell's Court House was packed to its utmost to witness the finals of the Columbia Graded School, last Monday and Tuesday night.

Too much praise can not be given Prof. Pittman and his efficient care of teachers: Misses Kiser, Etheridge and Outlaw.

In each department the training of the pupils was superb. Below is given the program for both nights.

The program for Monday night was as follows:

I.—Opening chorus by school, Welcome in the Spring.

II.—Solo (Polka Rondo) Grace Bateman.

III.—"Dispelling of Big Jim", by five boys in minstrel, was most laughable and well done.

IV.—Duet—Dance Rustique, Camilla McMullan and Mrs. J. L. Spruill.

V.—"Rose Drill"—By the wee little folks of the first grade, in unique costumes of pink and green crepes paper looked like one mass of beautiful pink rose buds.

VI.—Solo (Instrumental), Clara Mae Spruill.

VII.—Duet—"Let's Play Post Office", Helen Tatum and Hannah Holloway in costume, was the "hit" of the evening.

VIII.—"Prof., Make Over's Wonderful Remodelscope", rendered by twenty of the girls, was excellent. The solos of Martha Sykes, Catharine Spruill and Maggie Taft, made big hits. Susie Walker as president captivated the house. Space prevents the mention of all in the cast, but each and every one were excellent in their parts.

The following was the program on Tuesday night:

I.—Chorus by school—"Welcome"

II.—Duet—"Rustic Dance" Clara Mae Spruill and Ruth Sexton.

IV.—"The Wedding" by the first grade was a marvel of beau-

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

The name "Uneeda"—stamped on every biscuit—means that if a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit were placed before you, you could choose any one of them, confident that every soda cracker in that package would be as good as the best Uneeda Biscuit ever baked. Five cents.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

ty representing a church wedding with all its decorations, Bridesmaids and groomsmen. Wee little Ursula Bateman in bridal robe and veil was a dream of loveliness, and little Earl Swain looked the part. As the bridal party entered, little Wilmer Alexander sang beautifully "Oh Promise me."

V.—Solo, "All is rosy" (Florence Davenport).

VI.—"Sam and Tildy's Courtship", Samuel Bateman and Wilmer Alexander.

VII.—"Topsy Turvy" the play rendered on Tuesday night was a brilliant success.

Camilla McMullan as "Topsy Turvy" displayed talent seldom witnessed in amateurs. Prof. Pittman as the Deacon, brought the house "down". Judson Walker as cousin Frank, was immense ly congratulated in revealing oratorical capabilities.

The Misses Taft and Miss Miria Holloway were excellent in their respective parts.

IX.—Solo, "Have you seen My Kitty" by Fay Jones, was most artistically rendered.

X.—Duet March Militaire by Miria Holloway and Mrs. J. L. Spruill.

Closing with the melody chorus by the whole school the audience was dismissed.

Mrs. J. L. Spruill and Mrs. W. R. Spruill had charge of this most excellent musical program.

HARD ON SHIRTWAISTS

"Lizzie, I feel that I must speak to you about your washing bill, which is far too extravagant. Why last week you had six shirt waists in the wash. Marion, my own daughter, never sends but two!"

I don't doubt that a bit, ma'am replied Lizzie, "but I've to. Your daughter's sweetheart is a bookkeeper, while my young man is a chimney sweep. It makes a difference, ma'am."

"There Is a House With a Bathroom" was an expression at one time calculated to arouse interest, but now, conditions are entirely different. To build a house without a bathroom merely raises a question as to the good judgment of the builder. People know that he has either not considered or else misjudged the importance that an up-to-date bathroom has in increasing the value of the house, both as to renting and selling value.

For the finest plumbing equipment at reasonable cost we recommend "Standard" plumbing fixtures and will be pleased to show you the many artistic designs in which they are made. Ask for illustrated booklet.

Remember I am prepared to do all kinds of plumbing, steam and gas fitting, also special attention to sewer connections
