COMPLETE RETURNS FROM PRIMARY SHOW RESULTS REPORTED TUESDAY

Though Reid's Majority Was Not Quite as Large as Indicated in Former Account

The primary returns given in the last issue of the Advance were gathered too hastily to be made absolutely correct and complete. Errors, however, were of detail and unimportant and the results are as heretofore announced.

Sawyer's majority in his contest with Turner was 468 votes. It was given in the last issue as approximately 475.

Reid's majority was considerably less, reported. He was over 500 votes ahead of his nearest competitor but his majority was only 376—still a big majority, when a man is running against two opponents.

Small's majority over Perry was 79 as previously reported.

It is interesting to compare these figures with those of the primary two years ago. Perry polled only 23 less than at that time but Small had to his credit 219 more than did Perry's former opponent. The vote in the contest between Perry and Saunders was comparatively light, a considerable number of citizens not being willing to vote for either.

Sheriff Reid polled only 5 votes less in this primary than he did two years ago but his majority of 376 shows a loss of 86. Morgan polled 8 more votes than did Culpepper two years ago and Anderson made a better showing than in 1912.

SPECIAL PICTURES AT THE ALKRAMA

Sinking of Titanic Will Be Vividly Portrayed on Screen at Popular Playhouse Monday Night

The very remarkable and interesting feature film "The White Ghost of Disaster" will undoubtedly attract large crowds Monday night at the Alkrama. For some time there has been no special attraction in the city and the public will welcome this unusual and marvelous film.

The production of the story of the Titanic in actual motion was a work requiring great skill and patience, but the result achieved is said to be complete. Produced by one of Europe's greatest film producers, the film, which are in three full reels, created a tremendous sensation in Europe and when brought to America had the same effect upon American audiences.

The film story begins with the big ship leaving South Hampton, shows perfect impersonations of Strauss, Astor, the Allies, and the important officials of the ship the handsome interiors of the vessel with all their elaborate settings are shown, the wireless room, the collision of the giant iceberg, the effect of the collision above and below water, the lowering of the life boats, the life boats adrift and the final sinking scene. Each scene is shown in actual motion and the cost of the production of the film is said to have been one million dollars.

LAI D TO REST AT JARVISBURG

Body of Mrs. Dutcher Brought Here From St. Vincents and Taken to Home of Deceased by Boat

The remains of Mrs. Seth Dutcher who died in St. Vincent's Hospital Saturday morning at 5 o'clock arrived here on the late train Saturday night and were immediately taken to her late home at Jarvisburg on the steamer Vanscoier.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. P. Jerome, Sunday afternoon and her body was gently laid to rest in the family burial plot beside that of her brother who died less than a year ago. According to her request her brothers acted as pall bearers.

The deceased who was about thirty years of age was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher who together with her husband, nine year old son and five brothers survive her.

Mrs. Dutcher was a most estimable woman and her death has left a gloom over the entire community.

THE TALKING POST CARD

It remained for an ingenious Frenchman to apply the talking machine to a post card. By means of his invention a person who desires to send a card to a distant friend can enter a booth and talk into his machine that records his words upon a specially prepared postal card. When the card is received, thousands of miles away, its recipient has simply to take it to a nearby postal booth and the message sent from the far off land is repeated. The message can be preserved as the post card is indestructible and is said to perfectly produce the sender's voice. The American rights for this invention have already been secured, and before long the machine will be as common in our public places as the slot machines.

ROPER BRIEFS

Roper, N. C., July 21st—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tarkenton left Saturday for Creswell to visit Mrs. Tarkenton's parents.

MANAGER MAKES FULL TRIP REPORT

Reception Given Orphanage Children From Goldsboro Unusually Cordial Says Mr. Berry The Manager

EDITOR THE ADVANCE:—

As a native of the First North Carolina District of the Improved Order of Odd Fellows and as the manager of their orphanage concert class for the year 1914 I want to make through the columns of your paper, which I observe has a wide circulation in this section, a report of our tour of the district.

On Friday, July 3rd, we came from Windsor to Eure, which was the point of our first engagement in the district. At Eure we were treated royally by the brethren and had a fine audience. The proceeds were $56.80.

Early Saturday morning we left Eure for Corapeake. We spent a very quiet fourth but a pleasant one with and gave the concert at night in Parker's Methodist church one of the prettiest country churches we have ever seen. Our receipts were $55.00.

On Monday night, July 6th, we were the guests of Trotville Lodge number 320; and gave the concert at Bosley with a large audience. We realized this time $40.68.

As the guests of Elm Grove Lodge number 351 on Tuesday we were met at Cisco and entertained in some of the best homes in Chowan county. A packed house greeted the class for their concert at this place and $60.00 was realized.

On Wednesday morning, July 8th most of us were taken in automobiles to Edenton where we were welcomed as guests of Edenton Lodge number 18. The class was entertained at Hotel Wood and as a result of the entertainment at Bell's opera house cleared $50.75. The concert had proved to get to Edenton or the gate for the county primaries or the crowd would have been larger still.

From Edenton we went to Belcross. Just at night a heavy storm came up and we were prevented from going out to church at all. Out of one hundred and fifty engagements this is the first one we have ever missed. The brethren made up for the fact that there were no door receipts by a collection amounting to a tidy sum.

At Elizabeth City, which we reached on Friday, July 10th, we found the committee under the leadership of Brothers Cliff Sawyer and J. B. Leigh. These were assisted by Brethren L. E. Skinner, Claude Perry, Herbert Morrisette, Winford Gregory, W. H. Zoeller, E. F. Sawyer and many others. With such men as these at work we were confident that Achoree and Elizabeth Lodges would do great things for the class; but our hopes were more than realized when at the close of the concert, we were handed two hundred and fifty dollars in real cash. We desire here and now to extend to the Odd Fellows of Elizabeth City our heartiest expression of appreciation for the splendid house given us and for everything they did for our happiness and comfort.

On Saturday July 11th we went to South Mills on the 'Ray', where we were met by the brethren of Ehrlinghaus Lodge. At Ramoth Ghilghead Baptist Church

TURNER SAYS HE IS NOT OUT YET

And Asks Police to Use Every Effort to Make Clean Up of Town Complete Before December

To the criminal element of the city both white and black and to the habitual offenders in police court generally the news of Judge Turner's defeat last Tuesday night was the occasion for much rejoicing.

More than once Mr. Turner received an anonymous phone call Tuesday night the purpose of which was to advise him that his enemies were howling over his downfall and that old offenders were expecting better days under the regime of his successor.

Judge Turner's term does not expire until December and on the morning after the primary he addressed the following remarks to the police force:

"I wish to express my sincere thanks to you collectively and individually, for the earnest cooperation you have extended since I have been in this position."

"It would not have been possible to accomplish what we have had it not been for the unity and harmony that has existed at all times between us."

"Last night, I am informed, there were quite a number of people both white and colored, in various parts of this city, celebrating the fact that I was defeated. Upon two different occasions, I was called up by phone and told that this town would be run wide open, and that I had nothing else to do with it. I wish to say to you, that I will be in office until December 1st. I ask that every member of this Police Force assist me in cleaning up this community before I retire. There are dens of infamy, houses of ill fame, and blind tigers still here, and it is my sincere desire—that these be rooted out. To that end, I am directing your attention, and wish you to work day and night until this city is made wholesome, clean and safe for all. Any service I can render you at any time, is a pleasure, and I stand ready to assist you in any movement you inaugurate looking toward the enforcement of law and the best interest of our people."

An interesting conversation overheard on the street Tuesday indicates the light in which the defeat of Judge Turner is regarded by vagrants and those in sympathy with them. "Where is Jim?" one negro asked another in passing. "He is in Norfolk" was the reply. "When is he coming back?" "All depends on an election" was the answer. "Long as Turner is judge he hasn't set his foot here."

BLACKWELL MEMORIAL CHURCH

Rev. I. N. Loftin will speak at the Sunday morning service from the subject "The Great Riches of Christ's Poorest". At the evening service the subject of Mr. Loftin's sermon will be "A Young Man and a Clean Life." The young men are especially invited to attend this evening service.
