

BUY A BOLT NEXT MONDAY

Movement Backed By Women's Clubs Of City Will Contribute to Re- lief of Cotton Situa- tion

Last week the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy announced their advocacy of the "Buy Cotton" movement and took steps toward carrying out their plans of contributing toward the relief of the cotton situation. The Civic League of Elizabeth City has also offered its influence and energy in this direction, and November 2nd has been appointed as "Buy Cotton Goods" day in Elizabeth City.

The merchants of the city will next Monday, in co-operation with the women of the city, put on sale special bargains in cotton goods, and will display in attractive manner every variety of cotton goods, decorating their windows and stores appropriately for this occasion.

Every woman in Elizabeth City is urged to buy at least $1. worth of cotton goods next Monday. It will be a day of excellent bargains and the people outside of the city will do well to come to town on November 2nd and avail themselves of this exceptional opportunity.

The movement has been a success in a large number of towns, and has been mentioned in this newspaper from time to time since its initiation in Washington, D. C. That Elizabeth City and the surrounding section will join heartily in this movement, showing an enthusiastic spirit of co-operation is to be hoped for and expected.

SOUTH MILLS HAS GOOD LIST

South Mills, N. C., Oct., 23rd—The following students in the South Mills High School are entitled to a place on the Honor Roll for work done during the past month:

First Grade—Tacie Rurnham.
Second Grade—Irene Etheridge, Liddelle Jones.

Fourth Grade—Frank Newby, MaHen, Eloise Riggs, Lorena Koontz, John Gray.

Fifth Grade—Esther Miller, Margaret Carver.

Sixth Grade—India Bartlett, Amy Spencer, Mabel Etheridge, Edward Cohn.

Eighth Grade—Grace Gray, Madge Hedrick, Fannie Jones, Mae Sawyer, Hazel Stafford, Emily Stafford, Jacob James.

Ninth Grade—Matfie Rurnham.

Eleventh Grade—Hazel Jacobs.

Scene from "The Virginian" which is to be presented at the Alkrama next Monday, November 2nd.

"THE VIRGINIAN" NEXT ATTRACTION

And Favorable Press Com- ment In Regard To The Company Which Will Present Play Here

The story of "The Virginian" a dramatized version of Owen Wister's remarkable novel which will be seen here on Monday, November 2nd at the Alkrama Theatre is a tale of love, hate, sacrifice, and romance. The Virginian is a young cowboy of exceptional gifts, wild primitive passions, and modern civilized conventions which are continually at war within him, until he meets and falls in love with a pretty Vermont school teacher of superior education. She is attracted by his virility and at the same time repelled by his roughness. Quite against her intentions she is won by him, but not until he has shown himself to be her master in some surprising ways. The action is fast and filled with surprising and thrilling situations, and is replete with humorous comedy, making a brilliant as well as entertaining evening at the theatre.

The Greensboro News of October 18th says: "Many people hold to the opinion that Owen Wister's book comes closer to the requirements of the 'great American' novel than any existing work. It is so good indeed that one bears of its presentation on the stage with trepidation—fear lest the powerful impression left by the story be marred by the play. Such fears are groundless. The company that appeared here last night fully held up the standard of the work and the person who has read 'The Virginian' in book form with pleasure may count on having that pleasure heightened, rather than the reverse, by seeing it presented in dramatic form. Fred Raymond, Jr. playing the title role, Eleanor Reha as Mollie Wood, and Reginald Kuorr as Trampas, made a most favorable impression, but they were supported most excellently. Indeed to name the players deserving of especial mention would be simply to call the roster of the company." —Advt.

MR. EDWARD LITCHFIELD DEAD

Columbia, N. C., Oct., 24th—Mr. Edward Litchfield of Travis died Thursday morning at his home. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Robert Brickhouse of Columbia and interment followed in the family burying ground at Riders Creek.

Mr. Litchfield was well known by every one in the community and leaves a host of friends behind.

Dr. Julian Selig, eye, light specialist, has his offices in suite 315 Hinton Building.

HOME WEDDING BRILLIANT EVENT

Popular Elizabeth City Society Girl Weds Young Physician From Palmetto State

A large number of invited guests Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Burfoot on West Main street witnessed the marriage of Miss Ada Burfoot to Dr. William E. Lester, of McColl, S. C. The ceremony took place in the immense hall. The arch across the hall and the wide doors opening on opposite sides were festooned with graceful garlands of Southern smilax which also window and door, and were wound in and out of the beautifully turned stairway and arranged in banks on the piano which occupied the centre of the hall towards the rear. The altar was improvised in the half circles of windows facing the street. The entire space of the circle was hung with a solid curtain of smilax with a canopy overhead formed with alternating strands of the same dainty vine and white maline which extended from midway the hall to the ceiling, from where it dropped again to form a wedding bell under which the bridal party stood. Against the solid green background was placed a mammoth bunch of white chrysanthemums, while on a pedestal on either side were large silver candelabras holding white candles alight, which rendered complete, the decorations throughout the hall.

Just preceding the entrance of the bridal party, "At Dawning" was beautifully sung by Miss Marion Woodley, accompanied by Mrs. G. W. Ward, who also rendered the wedding music. Promptly on the hour and to the strains of Lohengrins Bridal Chorus the bridal party entered in the following order through doors on either side of the stairway:

The two attendants, Misses Sue Grice and Isabel Gibbs, entered first. They wore charming frocks of pink crepe meteor with trimmings of lace and roses and carried pink chrysanthemums. They also carried a roll of white tulle with which they formed an aisle for the bridal party. Following them, entered two groomsmen, Messrs. E. P. Smith, of South Carolina and W. L. Small of Elizabeth City. Miss Bessie White, the bridesmaid, entered alone and stood at the left of the altar. She was gowned in pink crepe meteor, entrain, trimmed with lace and she carried an armful of pink chrysanthemums. Messrs. A. F. Temple of South Carolina best man, and Noah Burfoot, brother of the bride, followed next. Mrs. P. G. Sawyer, a cousin of the bride, matron of honor entered alone and stood at the right of the altar. She wore her wedding dress, a handsome Morris gown of Duchess satin and lace. Miss Camilia Shuford of New York, another cousin of the bride, maid of honor, entered and stood at the left. She was gowned in white crepe de chine and lace entrain and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bride, wearing a handsome going-away suit of midnight blue and carrying a bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley, entered on the arm of the groom. They were met at the improvised altar by Rev. I. N. Loffin, pastor of Blackwell Memorial Baptist Church, who performed the ceremony, using the betrothal and ring service of the Episcopal church.

The groom's gift to his bride was a beautiful diamond set platinum ring.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party formed in line and received the congratulations of the guests, who then passed into the dining room, where an elegant buffet luncheon was served to the guests and the wedding party.

The bride is gifted and a very charming young woman and a great favorite among her many friends here. Dr. Lester is a young physician of McColl, S. C. was a student of the University of North Carolina and is a graduate of Tulane University, of New Orleans. Dr. and Mrs. Lester left on the 2:19 train for an extended wedding trip before they return to South Carolina, where they will make their home.

BERTHA BRIEFS

Bertha, N. C., Oct., 23rd—Mrs. George W. Lane of Bertha went to Elizabeth City last Wednesday on business.

Messrs. Freeman and Mathias made excellent lectures at the Odd Fellows Hall last Tuesday night and at the Poplar Branch high school Wednesday morning.

The fishing season opened on the 20th and from all reports the fishermen have done well.

Mrs. Pinnell of Bertha is visiting friends at Poplar Branch.

Mr. H. B. Crane of Bertha went to Norfolk this week and purchased two fine mules.

The people of Bertha are digging their fall potatoes for home use.

Mr. E. W. Mann visited the Poplar Branch High School last Wednesday.

Miss Ida Smith is ill at her home in Grandy.

Mrs. Maud Evans is ill at her home in Grandy.

HONOR ROLL OF CITY SCHOOLS

List of Students Winning Distinction During First Month Of Present Ses- sion

Below is published the Honor Roll for the Elizabeth School for the past month:

Miss Willie's Room—Epie Plyler, Ruth Bright, Nettie Jones, Ada Belangia, Ellen Melick, Nannie Stokes, Mary Smith, Rachel Williams, Elizabeth LeRoy, Mary Nash, Wm. Dudley, John Wood Lister Markham, Tommie Gray, Lorimer Deed, Jas. Hill, Willis Kramer, Burgess Perry, Marian Seyffert, Albert Bright.

Miss Porter's Room—Bonnie Parks, Mary Sawyer, John Hickman, Johnnie Crank.

Miss Stevens' Room—Margaret Sawyer, Lillian Wilkins, Elizabeth Williams, Aubrey Gurgampus, John West, Claud West.

Mrs. Fearing's Room—Rena Crank, Quetta Uke, Lawrence Aydlett, Andrew Bailey, Frank Homer.

Miss Zoeller's Room—Minnie Brockett, Katie Carter, Majorie Skinner, Mary Tarkington, Louise White, Chas. Oranck, Gene Berry, Sam Lamb, Chas. Price.

Miss Dexter's Room—Annie Overman.

Mrs. Pearson's Room—Joe Perkins, Frank Dawson, Wilbur Gregory, Sidney Evans, Elizabeth Hathaway, Thelma Gray, Laura Pritchard, Annie White.

Miss Ward's Room—Eunice Goodwin, Gladys Sexton, Goldie Stokes, Lola Twiddy.

Miss Weatherly's Room—Anna

(Continued on Page Three)