

McCABE AND GRICE

The Greatest of All Sales Begins Friday, June 11th

Store Closed Thursday at One O'clock to Get Ready For This Great Event

The first six ladies attending this sale Friday morning will be presented with a dress, the latest material.

To tell of the wonderful bargains throughout this great store and greater stock of merchandise would take more than this entire newspaper.

We are the largest distributors of merchandise in this district buying goods direct from the manufacturers saving you from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent on your purchases

At this great sale the knife will be put in everything pruning the prices to suit every one's pocket book. Every department will be represented—Shoes, clothing men and boys, hats, gents and ladies furnishings. Domestic, curtain goods, white quilts, sheets and sheeting, hosiery, underwear, corsets, white goods, silks, dress goods. Ladies ready to wear suits, waists and dresses, every article placed on sale will be an eye-opener—See hand bills for only a few items in this Great Clearance Sale. Remember the date

JUNE 11th, 1915

McCABE AND GRICE

Mrs. C. P. Harris entertained the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist Sunday School at her home on Cedar street. Those present were Mrs. Wm. Boettcher, Mrs. Gid Hughes, Mrs. Chas Griggs, Mrs. Geo. Cox, Mrs. R. C. Marchant, Mrs. R. C. Abbott, Mrs. W. A. Jackson, Mrs. J. L. Prichard, Mrs. Sam Williams, Mrs. James Ball, Mrs. Ed. Girdoge, Mrs. John Overman, Jr., The visitors were Mrs. Oscar Gray, Mrs. Andrew Bray, Mrs. Jud Ballard, and Dr. Henning. After business had been transacted the hostess served refreshments.

Miss Janie Hunt of Oxford, N. C. is visiting Mrs. E. R. Outlaw on Riverside Drive.

Mrs. G. W. Turner of Wm fall is visiting her son T. T. Turner.

J. C. Munden has gone to Roanoke, Va. in the employment of the Royster Fertilizer Company.

Mrs. Chas Johnson has returned from a visit to her people at Pendleton, N. C.

Mrs. B. E. Spence has returned from a visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mr. A. E. Kramer Manager of the Alhambra Theatre gave a theatre party Saturday night to Miss Camilla Jenkins and Mr. George Bell in honor of their approaching marriage on June 8th. The following composed the party. Misses Estella Johnson, Maud and Vera Hyatt, Bertha Martin, Nellie, Killian and Camilla Jenkins, Miss Annie Barnard, Mrs. Thomas Thurston, Mrs. F. G. Davis, Messrs Will Cox, Wright Jenkins, T. S. Sanderlin, W. K. Stallings, Tamplin Cox, Leslie Hooper, George W. Bell, T. H. Thurston, F. G. Davis. After the show the party repaired to Dean's where refreshments were served.

The Philathea Class of the First Methodist Sunday School held a meeting last week and elected officers for this year. Miss Mary Webb was elected President; Miss Mary Nurney vice president, Mrs. George Richey, Treasurer, Mrs. M. L. Sheep, teacher, Mrs. L. R. Foreman, assistant teacher.

Prof. S. H. Spragins left yesterday to spend the summer months at Mitchellville, Md.

Prof. E. W. Joyner of Manteo passed through the city yesterday on his way to the Sarah Leigh Hospital at Norfolk. Prof. Joyner will enter this hospital for an operation.

Mrs. J. P. Bernard of Shawboro was in the city today shopping.

W. J. Albertson of Newland is here this week.

BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL

The body of Frank Vaughn of Albany, New York, was brought here on the one o'clock train from Norfolk Friday. The funeral services were conducted at Christ Church by Rev. C. A. Ashby. The interment took place in the Episcopal cemetery. A large congregation attended the services.

The body was accompanied here from Albany N. Y. by Messrs W. K. Vaughn of Richmond, Va; Percy S. Vaughn of Hampton, and Carroll C. Vaughn of New York, brothers of the deceased, and also two sisters, Mrs. D. A. Albertson, and Miss Annie A. Vaughn of Portsmouth. One brother, A. M. Vaughn, a resident of Louisiana, was prevented from accompanying the body on account of the distance.

Mr. Vaughn was a native of Elizabeth City; was born and reared here but he had spent the most of his life in New York.

INVENTS HOG-PROOF LATCH

An Elizabeth City man, Mr. J. G. Baum, has just patented and put on the market a latch guaranteed to make the farm gate hog-proof. This latch holds the gate down so that a hog cannot by lifting the gate with his nose unlatch it. Farmers will no doubt be very much interested in this invention, which though simple and inexpensive is said to be quite effective for its purpose.

Mr. Wilfred Peele of Clarksville, Va., arrived in the city today to accept a position on the Advance force.

Miss Minnie Nash has returned from a visit to friends at Raleigh and Wake Forest.

BELL-JENKINS

Mr. George Washington Bell and Miss Camilla Vail Jenkins were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on Pennsylvania Avenue. Miss Mary Jenkins a sister of the bride was maid of honor and Frank Selig was the groom's best man. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the home by Rev. C. A. Culbreth, a few intimate friends of the family being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell left on the afternoon train for a trip to northern cities. Mr. Bell is a prominent young man of this city, holding a responsible position in Selig's Jewelry Store. Mrs. Bell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, takes an active part in the various societies and in the choir work of her church and the large number of bridal presents on this occasion attest to her popularity.

ELATED OVER ELECTION

Attorney B. G. Crisp of Manteo is in the city attending the session of the superior court. Mr. Crisp was elated at the result of the school election at Manteo last Saturday which endorsed the school bond issue by a vote of 71 to 31.

S. A. Griffin of Manteo passed through the city today on his way to Richmond and Norfolk.

T. S. Meekins of Manteo is here today on business.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE CHARGE

The new officers of the Berean Bible Class for Young Men of Blackwell Memorial Sunday School went in office last Sunday morning.

The class is very fortunate in securing Mr. Geo. J. Spence as its president and Dr. R. L. Kendrick as teacher and the vice president, Mr. W. H. Sanders is going about his duties in a business like way. The officers are Dr. R. L. Kendrick, teacher; Rev. I. N. Loffin and Mr. C. H. Spruill assistant teachers; Geo. J. Spence, president; W. H. Sanders, vice president; F. R. Congleton, second vice president; Luther Owens third vice president; W. L. Peal secretary; S. S. Burgess, assistant secretary.

E. R. Johnson of Currituck was in the city today on business.

Hermund Rooks of Townsend, Va. and Miss Sophie Annie Harrell, daughter of S. R. B. Harrell of Hollins, Va. were married Monday afternoon by Justice of the Peace, J. W. Munden, at his office at the Court House.

FOR SALE—Two Flanders automobiles. These cars cost $950 new. Now in perfect running order. Will sell for $750.00 each. Reason for selling, going out of business. J. W. STOKELY

FOR SALE—House at Nags Head in good condition. A bargain see A. C. BELL—Elizabeth City N C June 8 3t pd

DEATHS AT MANTEO

Manteo, June 7—Many friends are sorrowful on account of the death of Mrs. Ellen Johnson which occurred last Friday night. Mrs. Johnson was 77 years of age. The funeral services were conducted Sunday morning by Rev. T. J. Bagland. The death of Miss Camille Brinkley of Virginia Beach has brought deep sorrow to relatives and friends at Manteo. The remains will be brought to Manteo and interment will take place in the cemetery here on Tuesday.

TEDIOUS CASE IN COURT

The only case in court Monday tried before a jury was L. L. Winder against the Keeling Easter Company. This suit grew out of a claim that the plaintiff, Winder, made against the company for commission on the sale of lime.

NEW MEMBER OF BAR

Sidney Warren White, son of J. J. White, a prominent farmer residing near town, was sworn in as practicing attorney in Monday's court before Judge Shaw and is now a member of the bar.

William T. Roome of Baldimore Md. and Miss Catherine Josephine Cherry of Providence Route one, were married yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace J. W. Munden at his office.

M. W. Saunders of Nixonton was in the city Friday.