

SCHOOL BAZAAR A SUCCESS

Moyock, N. C., February 22—The 'School Bazaar,' given under the auspices of the Womans Club was a great success.

Ice cream, cake, sandwiches, tea and chocolate were served by Japanese maidens, Misses Jones, Jarvis, Bagley, Flora, Brown and Mrs. Garrett, in prettily decorated bowers.

One form of amusement was the shooting at a painted heart. This feature was in charge of Miss Lucille Burgess, dressed as 'The Queen of Hearts.'

Miss Grace Aydtlett was an excellent cupid and sold postals by the score.

The side shows proved very entertaining and produced good revenue.

Music and reading were interspersed: the principal numbers being a reading by Miss Eva Jones, Quartette by Misses Jarvis, Barnard, Gregory and Aydtlett. Reading by Miss Margaret Barnard and a mandolin duet by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Charlton. All reported a very enjoyable evening.

A very creditable gymnasium has been established at the Academy. It consists of a trapeze, two sets of rings, a horizontal bar and dumbbells. This is in charge of the Improvement League which constitutes the student body. Mr. Richard Oliver has general charge of the gymnasium.

Mr. Walter Lee is to give a performance at the Academy Friday night. One half the proceeds are for the benefit of school.

The "Woman's Club" will meet at the Academy Friday at 3 p. m. It is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Mr. H. T. Wrightson of the Arrington Land and Lumber Co. is in town on business.

I am The Thoughts of a Father

IN FACT THE THOUGHTS OF MANY FATHERS. Yes, the very heart message of thousands of fathers who realize that "Home, Sweet Home" is only an idle dream if proper provision has not been made for the future care and welfare of the loved ones at home.

I AM THE VOICE OF THE THESE SAME FATHERS.— Their thoughts, universally, are my thoughts. I speak of them and for them. They have foreseen, as I have seen, the want, drudgery and misery which attend neglect and lack of provision for the proverbial "rainy day."

I AM THE WISDOM OF THESE THOUGHTFUL FATHERS.— Their thoughts, in retrospection, recall the stern realities of life. I have taught them that the first law of nature—self protection—is the law of love—of preservation—of life itself.

I AM THE EGO IN EVERY FATHER.—Just selfish enough in my love for the little homemaker and the babies to bestow upon them a dowry, which will make them independent; make their burdens lighter and give them an earthly estate which will not fade away when the shadows of life are closing in.

I AM THE HOME PROTECTOR.—I stand for the sanctity of the home. I respect the home and loved ones. I insure happiness when life's skies are gray. I meet life's obligations and assure contentment. My hopes become realities.
