Women's Wants

We have just returned from the Northern markets with the swellest line of Womans Wants that the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore markets offer. We ransacked them and then we ransacked them again, and we don't hesitate to boast that we have one of the most up-to-date line of "Things New," to be found in Eastern North Carolina. With the money markets tight, you will find that we have taken advantage of buying goods that at ordinary times would cost you 10 to 25 per cent more.

Voiles and Woolen Taffetas.

We would call your attention to these two "Well Knowns" in all staple and fancy shades—Blue—Brown—Black—Champagne—but especially the newest thing for smart dresses—"Copenhagen Blue." We boast that you will find these right up-to-the-minute in weave and colorings—but especially worthy of notice the $1.25 values old price at 89 and 95cts. Don't forget that Panama is just as popular if not more so than ever.

Silks! Silks!

The thing that's made woman feel and look dressy from time immemorable and here you will find the kinds that will make you better satisfied with yourself than ever. The best $1.25 black at 89c. The $1.00 kind at 75c. and they are each worth the first price. The showings include all the wanted shades and patterns. Don't overlook our Chinas at 45c yd.

You Will Find

At our store, all that's New, Good and Beautiful in All Over Net and you can rest assured you will find not a piece but what will appeal to your fancy.

Don't Forget

To be shown our White Cross Barred Muslin, a dainty thing at 19c a yard. Would be chock full of value at 25 and 35c.

Special Novelties

Our new ladies collars in new stripe effects, the latest thing. You will want several when you see them if you follow the "Merry Widow" crowd.

Men's Wants.

For Smart Dressers

A few men (Very Few) think that we don't pay but little attention to their needs, but the majority have already found out that we cater to their wants as few exclusive men's furnishing stores do. We pride ourselves upon one of the snappiest lines of

to be found in town. We are Head to Foot Furnishers We are just opening our

New Spring Suits

Bought at prices just keep the operatives at hand—in all the wanted Shades and Styles.

Straw Hats

Every grade of straw and crown height to suit you, and in a few days it will be straw hat time.

Shoes and Oxfords

We don't carry the biggest stock in town but we do carry one of the most select stocks and we offer you footwear that others dare not do. A broad guarantee on every pair—they must give you good wear or we give you another pair—and they are no higher in price than others and cheaper than many.

Buy Patent Leather Shoes That Are Warranted.

If you have had trouble with patent leather that split and cracked, you will appreciate a patent leather so absolutely reliable that we can guarantee it. We will give you a new pair of shoes if the patent leather in B. & P. Korrek Shape shoes breaks before the first sole wears out.

WARRANTED BURROJAPS

Patent and Dull Leathers

are found in Burt & Packard Korrek Shape Shoes only. Our store is headquarters for these shoes, and you cannot do better than to try them, for if you do you will always wear

Local News.

Next Sunday, Easter Sunday, there will be a special musical program at the churches, for which the choirs are practicing this week.

Mr. E. W. Smith attended last week, as representative of the First Methodist church Sunday school and the Methodist Baraca class, the State Sunday school convention at Burlington.

Rev. G. W. Painter, a Missionary from China will address the Missionary Societies at the Presbyterian church Saturday evening at 4:30, and will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

An Easter program will be rendered at the Methodist Protestant church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to be present and share in the pleasure and profit of this service.

There are only two more weeks in which to pay your poll tax to qualify to vote in the elections to be held the year, and if you have not done so you had better attend to it at once.

The "Thaw Tragedy" was the attraction at the Gem Monday and Tuesday nights and the crowds drawn show that public interest in this famous affair is not dead yet.

Ex-Governor C. B. Aycock will address the citizens of Rocky Mount on prohibition Sunday afternoon, April 26th, in the Masonic Opera House. He will speak at night in Tarboro.

The prohibition campaign has reached the fighting stage in Tarboro. The Southerner chronicles a street fight Friday between Mr. L. E. Fountain and Mr. A. J. Shepherd, growing out of a prohibition argument.

Stephen Cooper, a colored youth, was bound over to Edgcombe superior court Thursday, by Squire W. O. Bullock, to answer to the charge of stealing gasoline oil from the A. C. L. shops at South Rocky Mount.

There were baptized just below the Falls Sunday 71 colored people who are among the converts at a recent meeting of the colored Baptist Church. Quite a large crowd, many of them white people witnessed the baptism.

L. S. Cook, an insurance agent from Norfolk, who appeared to be in very hard luck the day before, was found dead Sunday in a vacant house belonging to Mrs. Mary Long, near Speed. He died from heart disease. Cook had recently been in Tarboro and other towns in this section.

The Tar River-Roanoke Gun Club, of Tarboro, has extended an invitation to President Roosevelt to hunt on their game preserves on Roanoke river, during the fall months. The club has a tract of land containing 17000 acres and game is plentiful.

Mr. S. V. Pitts, of Spring Hope, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for register of deeds of Nash county was in the city Saturday. Mr. Pitts is a popular and capable young man and has a strong following in the county.

Services at 6:15 in the morning and at 7:45 in the evening are being held in the First Methodist church daily this week. The meeting conducted by Rev. D. H. Tuttle is attracting large crowds and considerable interest is being manifested.

The Enfield Progress says the report that Booker Washington would deliver an address at the commencement of Joseph K. Brick school at that place is incorrect. The great negro orator was invited but could not come because of another engagement.

E. Epstein, the "One Price Clothier," has a novel and very attractive seasonal display in his store window, in the Masonic building. Force is added to the display of spring and summer straw hats by a number of little chicks in a straw hennery, signifying the approach of spring.

The Red Oak Academy will have its commencement exercises Monday night and Tuesday night, April 20 and 21st. Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, will deliver the annual address Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to the exercises and to hear the address.

Miss Bessie Griffin's school, about five miles from the city, in Nash county, closed Tuesday with an entertainment in the evening. There were recitations, well rendered by the scholars, after which they indulged in various games. The evening closed with delightful refreshments being served, and the occasion was an altogether pleasant one.

The Jas. Adams Shows, under canvas, on Thomas street, are attracting large crowds. nightly, this week, and the performances please well, as the uproarous laughter of the audience gives unmistakable evidence. The company has a good band and orchestra and this adds much to the entertainment. They will be here until Saturday night and give a special matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30

The Record is delayed this week on account of the illness of the foreman, and we hope the readers will pardon us this once.

We call attention elsewhere to the statement of the Citizen Building & Loan Association. It has been doing business only one year, but has nearly 1000 shares in force. This is a very gratifying showing.

If you invest your earnings in the Citizens Building and Loan Co. you not only help yourself by good, secure investment but you help to build up Rocky Mount. Third series of stock will be opened May 1. See W. S. Wilkinson, secretary and treasurer, and begin at the first.

The absence of Mr. R. L. Ray from the postoffice the past few days is accounted for in the coming to the home of a dear, wee little girl, the "first born," and he is at home accumulating experience in the laudable work of "raising a family." Mrs. Ray we are glad to state, is getting along well.

The Air Dome Amusement Company has made arrangements with Mr. John L. Arrington, and a show will be conducted nightly at the park this summer. The company will have a circuit composed of Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Wilson, Kinston, Goldsboro and New Bern. First-class vaudeville will be put on and this will be alternated each week with moving pictures. The season will open June 8th, and the price of admission will be 10 cents.

Several companions from the Rocky Mount Chapter, were present Tuesday night to attend a regular convocation of Enfield Chapter, No. 52., at which work was done in the Royal Arch degree. Gravely, Louis Levy, John Arrington, John Penton, and E. Epstein.—Enfield Progress.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee at Griffin's drug store. 50c.

Death of an Infant.

John Robert, the 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carraway, died at their home on the Falls Road Thursday evening, of meningitis. The funeral was conducted from the home of Mr. J. F. Kersey, Friday afternoon, by Rev. R. H. Black, pastor of the North Rocky Mount Methodist church, and the burial was in Pine View Cemetery.

A Great Fish.

Saturday Mr. Doc Bullock brought to the city and sold to M. Oppenheimer's market a large rockfish caught in a seine at the Dunbar place, eight miles below Rocky Mount, in Tar river. The great fish weighed 44 pounds, and it was necessary to carve him like a hog to sell him.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his wisdom and goodness on March 17th, 1908 to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Earnest L. Chavasse we the members of the Key Stone Camp No. 153 of the Woodmen of the World of Rocky Mount, N. C., do hereby resolve.

1st. That in his death the Camp has lost one of its most faithful and earnest members and while we feel deeply the loss of our brother, we believe it is well with him

2nd. That we extend to his loved ones our heartfelt sympathy and commend them to the goodness and mercy of God.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his bereaved family, one to the Sovereign Camp, and one to be placed on the minutes of Key Stone No. 153 and one to the papers of our city.
