MILES CLARK HOME ONE OF MOST INTERESTING

The fame of the unique and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Clark of Elizabeth City has spread far and wide. Miles, we all know is the man who made the Southern Albemarle region a Texaco country. The following, reprinted from a late issue of The State magazine, tells about the home which is situated on a beautiful site overlooking Pasquotank River, where the yacht is moored almost to the door:

"One of the most attractive homes in North Carolina is that of Miles Clark, Elizabeth City. Most of the furnishings, and different articles of furniture have a decidedly nautical flavor. There are anchor flukes for andirons, models of well known ships, several fine maritime paintings, reflected lights all along the top of the walls showing scenes from Cape Hatteras to Cape Henry, a sky scene in the ceiling with stars shining brightly and many other similar items. The effect is unusually beautiful.

"Incidentally, Miles has probably the handsomest yacht, owned by anyone in the state. It used to belong to Doris Duke."
