

SUNNY HOME.

TOBILOT, N. C.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1883.

THEOPHILUS HORTON, Editor.

A large hotel was burned in Milwaukee, last week, by which very near one hundred lives were lost.

A bill is before the Legislature now, which will give every town with 500 inhabitants the right to vote upon the question of a graded school.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Below we give some of the Legislative proceedings as condensed from the News and Observer:

SENATE.

Bill to amend the public school laws of 1881, upon motion of Mr. Pemberton, was tabled.

Resolution appointing a committee to look into the propriety of erecting a Governor's mansion and renovating and repairing the capitol was adopted.

Mr. Webb, bill to amend the public school law.

Bill making dogs subject of larceny, after being discussed by Messrs. Ebbes, the introducer, Clark, Morehead, Watson, Pemberton, Scoot of Rockingham, and Womack, was recommended to the judiciary committee.

Bill in regard to magistrates in Lenoir county electing themselves was put on its second reading.

Mr. Lottin, the introducer, said it had become a disgrace to the management of county affairs in Lenoir the way matters had been conducted there by the magistrates, in the way of keeping themselves and near relatives in office, which the people of the county generally disapproved, and that the county might get the proper relief, it was necessary to pass the bill.

Mr. Hill, regarding the sale or giving away of spirituous liquors at places where political speakings are held.

On Wednesday the election of United States Senator being in order, Mr. Phenix in placing the name of Hon. M. W. Ransom in nomination, said:

MR. PRESIDENT.—I arise to place in nomination for that high position, one of North Carolina's most gifted and illustrious—one whose name is a household word in every home in North Carolina, from the sea shore to the mountain-top—one who, combining the logic of a Calhoun with the eloquence of a Castelar, and the courtly bearing of a Bayard, stands today in the front ranks of American statesmen, and wields an influence in the councils of the nation second to that of no other Senator.

His ardent love for his native State, and his great devotion to public duty, command the admiration of every true son and daughter of our beloved commonwealth. He possesses in an unusual degree the qualities of the polished gentleman, the brilliant orator, the brave soldier and the profound, sagacious statesman.

The vote was then taken, which stood as follows: Ransom 108, Johnson 47.

HOUSE.

Propositions and Grievances—Messrs. Anderson, Biggs, Baum, Posey and Bailey of Wilson.

Mr. Williams of Columbus, resolution to exempt $50 worth of farming and mechanical tools from taxation.

By Mr. Belcher, to amend the landlord and tenant act.

Resolution instructing our members in Congress to have an act passed distributing the surplus funds in the United States treasury among the States for educational purposes.

Mr. Bailey, of Mecklenburg, said that no one would go further than himself in any proper effort to increase our school fund, but the resolution proposed that our Representatives should violate their duty and oath to support the constitution of the United States, as Congress has no more power to distribute the national funds to our State public charities than to private charities.

Mr. Bower said he should vote against the resolution because there had already been passed a resolution asking that the internal revenue system be abolished, and to ask for the money received from that source looked like inconsistency. And that he believed the resolution was clearly unconstitutional.

Mr. Sutton said that what the people wanted was money for education, and he did not care from what source it came.

Mr. Green, of Franklin, said that this was a serious question, and ought to be considered carefully, that the excess of money in the treasury over and above the amount necessary to run the government came there by robbery from the people, and that some disposition ought to be made of it. He moved to refer, but afterwards withdrew his motion.

Upon a vote being had the resolution passed its second reading by a vote 98 to 8, Messrs. Bailey, of Mecklenburg, Barrett, Bower, Brown, Lenoir, Marsh, Tomlins, and Williams, of Sampson, voting in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Bailey, of Wilson, an act for the relief of the sureties on the bond of K. H. Winstead, late sheriff of Wilson county, passed its third reading.

To pay registrars and judges of election. Passed third reading.

Mr. Bryan, to elect school committees by the voters of the school districts. To abolish the county superintendent of free schools in North Carolina.

Mr. Smith, to furnish soldiers from North Carolina, with artificial limbs.

To amend the act prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday, so as to prevent the disposing of it in any manner. Passed third reading.

Be sure to call on Turnball for your fine whiskeys, wines, &c.
