

THE HIGHLANDS PIPER

Captain and Mrs. Jack Pierce of Springfield, Va., with their children Deborah and Jeffrey, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Healy at Broadway Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gleis of Miami, Fla., are spending a month at their Mirror Lake home. They recently became the proud grandparents of a baby girl, Doreen Lynn. Parents are Gene and Pat Colley of Miami.

A friend of Overton and Helen Chambers reports that they recently entertained a group of friends from Stratford - On - Avon. This same friend explained that Mr. Chambers, who before his retirement from the lumber business in Chicago was a member of the Union League Club is also a well-known art and literary critic.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Morris and grandson Michael of West Palm Beach, Fla., are spending three weeks with Mrs. Morris' mother, Mrs. Raymond E. Bair at her home on Mirror Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Morrow and sons, Johnny and Edwin, Jr., of Joliet, Ill., visited friends and relatives in Highlands last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dickson of Anderson, S. C., are spending this week at their cottage on the Wall-halla Road in Highlands, and have as guests their two daughters and their families. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ballentine and son, Stephen of Memphis, Tenn., and the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Eichelberger and their daughters, Sandra, Julia, and Anne, of Greenwood, S. C.

A well-known summer resident voiced the following comment this week: "It is understandable why county fairs are held in the fall, so it is only regrettable that the many summer residents of Macon County cannot attend the fair. This is particularly true for Prof. and Mrs. Thomas Orumpier who can be seen almost daily later in the year at the Fair grounds in New Orleans."

Mrs. A. R. Nail returned this week from Carrabelle, Fla., where she went for two weeks following the death of Mr. Nail. The Nail family wish to express their appreciation for the kindness shown them during their recent time of grief.

Guests of Mrs. Mabel Gould this week are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clarke and sons, Fred and John of West

Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Marjorie Jones of Atlanta, Ga.; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gould of Raleigh, N. C., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. Harry Baxter of Atlanta arrived Tuesday to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Ben Wax. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wax and Mr. Paul Wax returned Tuesday to Baton Rouge, La., after their visit here during the illness and death of their brother, Mr. Ben Wax.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Reese and son Stanley of Fairfax, Va., are spending a week here with relatives and friends.

Mr. J. W. Odette, brother of Mrs. L. G. Misner of Horse Cove and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., passed away following a long illness on August 6 at his home in Kansas City, Mo. Services were held at his former home in Detroit, Mich., on August 9th.

Recent guests of Mrs. Olive T. Jones were her son, Col. Alton Jones, and his daughter Della Ann of Williamsburg, Va.

Mr. O. F. Brown, Jr., who has been spending the summer with his father in Horse Cove left last week for Titusville, Fla., where he is one of the faculty of the High School. Mr. Brown, Sr., is remaining until early fall.

Mrs. Nana Shepherd and her sister, Miss Martha Shepherd are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. W. E. McGuire at Lake Sequota.

The Satulah Club will hold its first meeting since suspension of Club meetings for the summer season on Monday, Sept. 9th at the Club rooms adjoining the Library at 3:30 p.m. This second Monday meeting is because of Labor Day falling on the first Monday.

her committee will be served at $1 per plate, on Monday, August 26, at 6:30 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall. The annual Parish Meeting, with presentation of reports of the past year's activities, and the election of a Vestry to serve during the coming year, will be convened at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

On weekdays the Holy Eucharist is celebrated at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday; and on Thursday at 10. Morning Prayer is read at 15 minutes before the hour in all cases. The Thursday service is followed by an adult discussion group.

Miss Johnson To Marry Ray Reese

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bradley Johnson, of Jefferson, S. C., announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Ila Sue, to the Rev. Dallas Ray Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reese, Sr., of Highlands.

The wedding will take place on Friday, August 30, at 8 p.m. at the Long Branch Baptist Church in Jefferson.

After the wedding the couple will be at home in Concord, N. C., where Mr.

Reese is employed with the Southern Life Insurance Company and Miss Johnson is an elementary school teacher. All friends and relatives of the prospective bride and groom are invited to attend.
