White House of the President During the conference the President During the conference the President Istened to both sides with the greatest eagerness. Immediately after its adjournment, his physicians, Surgeon General Rixey and Dr. Lung, insisted on making an examination of his wound after redressing it. Apparently no ill effects had resulted from the actiement of the day, and at a later eatilement of the day, and exitement of th

ory.
President's statement is as fol-

ows:

I wish to call your attention to the fact that there are three parties affected by the situation in the anthracite trades—the operators, the miners and the general public. I speak for serimer the operators nor the miners, but for the general public. The questions at issue which led to the trouble between the operators and the miners.

The questions are upon the operators and the miners and the situation itself vitally affects the public. As long as there seemed to be a reasonable hope that these matures could be adjusted between thm it did not seem proper to me to intervene. I disclaim any right or duty to intervene in this way upon legal grounds or upon any ground other than on account of the nature of the catastrophe to a large portion of our people in the winter fuel famine, which is staring us in the face, I believe that my duty requires me to use whatever induence I personally can to bring to an end a situation which has become literally interesting the character of the situation and to say that it is gravity is such that I am constrained urgently to insist that each one of you realize the heavy burden of responsibility upon you. We are upon the threshold of winter with an already existing coal famine, the future terors of which we can hardly a to your respective fallings in the armough in the winter of the catagories. The cryli possibilities are so far reaching, so appailing, that it seems to me that, you are not only justified in sink, but required to sink, for the time, any tenacity as to your respective matter. It is my judgment that the situation requires the transtness there is in me I ask that there be an immediate resumption of operations in the coal mines in some such way as will without any necessary delay meet the crying need of the people. I do not invite a discussion of your respective claims. I appeal to your patriotism, to the spirit that sinks personal considerations and makes individuals sacrifice for the general Serious Consequences.

4,000 flore May Strike.
Birmingham, Ala., Special.—If the orders of the officials of the United Mine Workers are obeyed 4,200 miners in the employ of the Tennesse Coal, Iron & Railroad Company will be idle. The strike inaugurated several days ago on account of the failure of the company to deduct $1 from the miners' wages without a written consent from each miner, has extended to the Blocton and Blue Creek fields. The Tennessee Company will make an effort to begin work at Blue Creek Monday morning, but the result is problematical.

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN CALLED OUT

Street Car Windows Smashed and Non-Union Conductors and Motor men Stoned.

Glens Falls, N. Y., Special.sult of new activity of the striking mo-tormen of the Hudson Valley Electric Railroad Company, soldiers of the Na tional Guard are again guarding the peace of this town and, though Sunday has seen no rioting, an uneasy feeling prevails. The militia company of this place, which had been dismissed to its armory Thursday last, was called out again Saturday night, and is now proagain Saturday night, and is now pro-tecting the power house and other property of the railroad company at Glens Falls. A squad also is guarding a bridge at Sandy Hill, having bear tent there following a report that one of the canal bridges was to be blow: up. The riotious mob which held pos-session of Glens Falls for four house assion of Glens Falls for four hours was composed of sympathizers of the strikers, and the police force was pow-erless against it.

A mass meeting called by the labor organizations to express sympathy for the strikers was the origin of the dis-turbance. It was planned to have the mass meeting in Bank Square, and when permission was refused ill-feel-ing resulted. Headed by a band the strikers and labor leaders formed in a parade throught the principal streets, the ranks of the paraders being augmented by sympathizers and boys who at the first opportunity created disturbances. The riot was precipitated by the arrest of a man who made insuli 1rg remarks to one of the non-union employes and each car passing was the object of a demonstration. At Cool's Switch, four cars were stailed at one time. They were soon abandoned, the non-union motormen and conductors placing themselves in the hands of the police for protection, or deserting to the strikers. The car windows were smashed and a fusilade of bricks and stones thrown at the cars. Conductor Currier, of Brooklyn, was so badly injured by rough handling and being hit in the head with missiles that he is in the hospital in a serious condition.

The last car from the north which came into town about 11 o'clock carried mail sacks, which were removed to the railway offices. About this time a company of the Narional Guard under Captain Mott made its appearance and, marching to the jail, took the motormen and conductors under its protection. In marching to the cars delimications were made and the milita used the butts of their guns and threatened to shoot several times. Under heavy guard of soldiers the seven stalled cars were run down toward the power house, followed by a mob. In the outskirts of the city riotious demonstrations were made and stone throwing indulged in, to which the soldiers responded by volleys of bullets, shooting in the air, however. the ranks of the paraders being aug-mented by sympathizers and boys who

The only formal proceeding of the day was the dedication of Camp Roose-velt, the tent city on the White House grounds, which will be the headquarters of the several corps organizations during the week. The ceremonies there consisted of a number of addresses by men of national reputation, the chief speech being delivered by Secretary Hay. For the rest the old soldiers busi-ed themselves largely in renewing the acquaintances of 40 years ago and in manifesting their appreciation of the welcome extended to them by the capiwacome extended to them by the capital city. Of this welcome they found generous evidence on every hand. The events of the day, outside the dedication ceremonies at Camp Roosevelt, included a fine regatta on the Potomac, an attractive automobile parade, an interesting procession by the Red Men of this city and neighboring cities and camp fires in the evening. Commander-in-Chief Torrence and his staff kept open house all day at the Ebbitt House and received many hundreds of callers. At night the veterans and their friends were entertained by an exhibition of fireworks on the Wazhington monument grounds. Mr. Mitchell positively declined to discuss the request made by President Roosevelt that Mitchell use his influence to induce the miners to resume work with a promise of the appointment of a commission to investigate the miners' grievances. It was learned from a reliable source, however, that Mr. Mitchell does not regard the proposition favorably and that he will decline to ask the miners to resume work under the conditions stipulated. When the conference adjourned the following official statement was given out:

"The committee of the National Association of Manufacturers has listened to the present strike difficulty as offered by a special committee of the United Mine Works, at the head of which was Mr. John Mitchell. The National Association of Manufacturers' committee has learned what it could of the condition and now goes to Philadelphia for the purpose of meeting a committee of mine operators with the idea of getting their side of the difficulty. The National Association of Manufacturers' committee carries no proposition from the mine workers and has no other mission than the desire to speedily bring about a settlement of the dispute."
