COLUMBUS READY FOR PRESIDENT

City Decorated And Spite Of Strike Big Crowd on Hand to Hear Chief Executive

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Sept. 4.—The city today is decorated to receive President Wilson, who makes his first speech here today in his ten thousand mile trip across the country in the interest of the Peace Treaty.

The street car strike did not deter thousands from crowding the downtown section, many coming in from the surrounding cities to hear the President.

After his speech here the President is expected to leave for Indianapolis, where he speaks tonight.

EXPLAINS TREATY

In his address here the President said that the Treaty undertook to punish Germany but that there was no intention to crush any great people, and that the reparation demanded was no greater than Germany could pay.

He declared that the League was created in fulfillment of the pledge of the United States that she was fighting to end all wars forever, and he said that the League was the only thing that could prevent a recurrence of the catastrophe.

He went on to say that the League gives the small nations the right to live their own lives.

Referring to the international labor commission to meet here next month, he said that it would convene whether the treaty was ratified or not.

CITY TO BUY CAR OF FOOD

And Housewives League to Cooperate With City Manager Simonds In Its Distribution

At the meeting of the Housewives League held Wednesday afternoon a letter was read from City Manager Simonds asking the League to cooperate with him in the matter of getting a carload of government food here and disposing of it. The plan is to use one of the market house stalls to sell the food. No goods will be delivered and everything will be sold for cash. The prices will be lower than ordering these goods by parcel post, of course, and it is believed that this food will be quickly disposed of and that it will materially aid those who are seeking to reduce the cost of living.

ELL FROM TRAPEZE SERIOUSLY HURT

McKinley Midgett, 15 years old, fell from the trapeze at the Y. M. C. A. at 9:30 Wednesday night and was seriously injured. Two physicians were summoned at once and the boy was taken to his home on Southern Avenue as soon as the doctors could render the necessary aid.

On Thursday morning it was found that he was not getting along so well and he was taken to a Norfolk Hospital by Dr. Kendrick. The boy's skull is fractured.

Midgett worked at the store of McCabe & Grice.

STATE NORMAL OPENS SEPTEMBER EIGHTH

The Colored State Normal School here opens on September 8th and the prospects are for a good opening and excellent enrollment.

Arrangements have been made between the city school board and the county board of education so that 67th and 7th grade pupils are provided for at the State Normal. Also 1st and 2nd grade pupils on the east side of Southern Avenue will attend the Normal and be used in the practice school.

Efforts are being made by the Board of Managers, assisted by Prof. T. E. Browne, Director of Vocational Agriculture, West Raleigh, to start a Department of Vocational Agriculture at the State Normal. "We are experiencing some difficulty in finding a suitable man for the work," says Mr. Browne.

Plans for the new buildings are awaiting the approval of the State Architect, without which the work of building cannot go forward. The plans are expected this week.

'YES, I BEAT HER 'N' I'LL DO IT AGAIN

"Yes, I beat her, and I'll do it again. That woman talked about me. I won't pay out a cent of money about it either. Send me to jail if you want to."

So testified Mrs. Mary Swain, white, in police court Thursday morning, when tried on the charge of assault on Mrs. Jane Cain.

The two ladies in question live on Fifth Street. The alleged beating was administered Wednesday.

PERMANENT PASTURE ON EVERY FARM

(By G. W. FALLS)
(County Farm Agent)

A good permanent pasture should be on every farm in Pasquotank County. In fact, it is the greatest asset a southern farmer may have, and a prerequisite to good livestock.

We are thinking of more and better live stock for our farms. But, have we thought about the large quantity of food needed for the production. If not, we should consider this most vital problem.

If you are interested in growing livestock, which I am sure you are, some consideration should be made in regard to cost of production.

Livestock, such as hogs, cattle, and sheep, are very high, and will continue to be high for several years, due to grain shortage in this and other countries. But, all feeding material is high, and are we receiving the net profit from livestock that we should have. If not, we should not be satisfied with the methods we are using.

No livestock producer can hope to make his herd remunerative, as it should be, when fed from the barn. Therefore, to produce good livestock with a large margin of profit it is essential that good grazing be furnished, and it is absurd to think of growing good livestock without a permanent pasture consisting of improved grasses and clovers.

Texas have been made by the Department of Agriculture in determining the most advisable mixture for permanent pastures in Coastal Plain section, and they find the following to give best results:

Forty pounds of mixture per acre. 8 pounds of Red Top; 8 pounds of Orchard Grass; 8 pounds of Alsike Clover; 8 pounds of Italian Rye Grass; 4 pounds White Clover; 4 pounds Red Clover.

This quantity of seed can be procured from good reliable firms for $14.50, and I shall be glad to furnish inoculation through U. S. Department of Agriculture free.

A good seed bed should be prepared, and limed at rate of one to two tons per acre, provided lime has never been used on the plot.

Try one or two acres, and prove to your own satisfaction the great saving of feed and labor.

If you desire further information call at my office, 302 Federal Building.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR LARGE ATTENDANCE AT COTTON MEETING

American Cotton Association to Meet at New Orleans in September—Governors and Other Prominent Speakers Scheduled.

New Orleans, La.—Preparations for one of the largest conventions ever held in the South are being made in New Orleans for the general meeting of the American Cotton Association, which will be held here September 8 and 9. A call for the meeting was recently made by governors of the cotton states and the Association, through its president, J. Skottowe Wannamaker.

Delegates appointed by the governors to represent each state and each county of the state, will be present, and delegates will also attend from farmers' unions, State Agricultural Departments, bankers' associations, State Chambers of Commerce, State Departments of Education and other business and professional organizations. It is also announced that the general public is invited to attend the sessions.

Among the speakers who have accepted invitations to address the New Orleans meetings are Gov. Ruffin D. Pleasant of Louisiana; Hon. Martin Dubruant, mayor of New Orleans; Hon. John M. Parker, of New Orleans, former United States Food Administrator; Col. W. B. Thompson, of New Orleans; Hon. Harvie Jordan, of Monticello, Ga.; Hon. J. Thos. Heflin, congressman from Alabama; Hon. Hoke Smith, United States senator from Georgia.

Hon. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education; Hon. Jno. Sharp Williams, of Mississippi; and Senator E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, are endeavoring to arrange their affairs so as to be among the speakers. The principal address on behalf of the American Cotton Association will be delivered by President Wannamaker.

Questions concerning the general economic situation as affecting the production and marketing of cotton will be thoroughly discussed, and a fair price for cotton, based on the cost of production and other items, will be recommended.

No Arbitrary Price To Be Set
"It is not our intention to fix the price of cotton arbitrarily," said President Wannamaker, in announcing plans for the meeting, "but simply to recommend a minimum price to the producers. This will be determined only after a careful and conservative analysis of all factors entering into the production and marketing of the crop."

"In fact, all of our deliberations and plans will be conservative. We do not purpose to indulge in wild and visionary speculations nor urge impossible schemes. With the aid of experienced business men on our several committees, we plan to consider all features of the situation impartially, doing justice to all parties concerned."

"We hear no antagonism to any other organizations," declared Mr. Wannamaker. "We are devising an offensive campaign against any interests, for we are confident that our plans successfully worked out will rebound to the welfare of all interests concerned, whether with the production, preparation, marketing or manufacturing of the South's great staple."

Perfection of the organization of the American Cotton Association, enlarged plans for the membership campaign and discussion of the general business situation will feature the first day of the convention. The question of a fair price for cotton will be taken up at the final session.

Group meetings for the completion of state organizations will also be held. Various committee meetings will discuss matters relating to warehousing, marketing, finances and other phases of the Association's program.

To date the following governors have signed the joint proclamation for the New Orleans meeting: Governor Kilby, of Alabama; Governor
