COMMUNITY FAIR A BIG SUCCESS

Display of Farm and Home Products of Bayside and Riverside Shows Progressiveness of the Section

The first of Pasquotank's annual Community Fairs was held at Epworth School House, yesterday, and it was a splendid example of what the people of a rural community can do when they get started. The array of farm products, livestock, poultry, canned fruits and vegetables, and of needlework was indeed a credit to the skill and industry of the folks who live in that prosperous and progressive section of Pasquotank.

In the livestock department the hogs were perhaps the star exhibit. There were Durocs, Poland Chinas and Berkshires, all pure-bred, and among them several of the largest ever placed on exhibition in this county. Two varieties of sheep were represented, the Southdown and the Shropshire, as well as a number of banner cattle and mules.

Geese, both tame and wild, of several species, and some regular Thanksgiving turkeys were included in the collection of fowls. In addition there were full blooded Plymouth rocks, white Orpingtons, black Minorcas, Anconans, and white and brown Leghorns represented among the edible and egg laying members of the chicken family. A coop of guinea chickens was also on display, and these kept up a continual quartette of their peculiar and well known whistles.

Indoors, the first thing to strike the eye of the visitor was the display of needlework and embroidery. The latter included some wonderful doilies, table spreads, dresses, pillow covers, bed quilts of patchwork variety, table mats, and an assortment of fetchingly attractive feminine garments which were entirely beyond the descriptive powers of a mere male.

Canned goods of every conceivable sort were to be seen on the center table of the main exhibition room. These included peaches, pickles, honey, beans, and many other good things to eat. In the other room were displayed cakes, pies, bread, rolls, biscuit, and so forth, in an array to tempt the fastidious appetite of the most exacting epicure. Both rooms were tastefully decorated with an abundance of flowers, which served to set off the excellent displays in a most attractive manner.

The principal speaker of the day was Dr. E. W. Knight, of the department of rural education of the University of North Carolina, who delivered an address upon certain phases of rural schools, after a short speech by W. O. Saunders upon the need for the formation in Pasquotank County of a branch of the American Cotton Association.

The following are the premium awards in the Woman's and Girls' Department of the Bayside and Riverside Community Fair. The awards in the farm products and livestock department will be published in tomorrow's edition of The Advance.

SUNDAY SCHOOL STARTS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

October is enrollment month for the Baptist Sunday schools of the South and Superintendent Aydtlett called on the school for some definite plan of work to accomplish the end in view. The classes of the school will be divided into two groups and each group will be directed by a captain in the work of enlisting new members.

The captains named are Miss Lucille Pass and Mr. Roscoe Wynn. Next Sunday morning the decision of the captains as to how the school shall be divided will be made. The rivalry between the two groups in their efforts to secure the largest number of members, it is thought, will add many new members and increase the efficiency of the school.

BAPTISTS PLAN RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

BODY CHARGED WITH DUTY OF OUTLINING HOW 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN CAN PROMOTE THAT TASK REACHES FIELD—DR. LOVE OUTLINES THE NEED AND ISSUES CALL

DR. J.F. LOVE
SECRETARY
BOARD

To make a general survey of the economic, social and religious conditions in Europe with a view to recommending to the Baptists of the South where and how they can aid most effectively in the reconstruction of that continent through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, a commission, composed of Dr. J. F. Love, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board at Richmond, Va.; Dr. Z. T. Cody, editor Baptist Courier, Greenville, S. C., and Rev. Everett Gill, missionary at Rome, Italy, who is returning after a leave of absence in this country, and who will serve as guide and interpreter to the other members, is now in England for a conference with the Baptists of Great Britain and will go from there for an inspection of France and Belgium.

Another brief conference will be held with the Baptists of Switzerland, after which a trip will be made through Italy and a survey of the new republic of Czechoslovakia conducted. From Prague, capital of Bohemia, the commission will go into such parts of Russia as are open, and the foreign trip will be concluded with an inspection of Palestine, where the missionary work formerly done in Syria, Persia and Galilee by the Illinois Baptist Association has been turned over to the Foreign Mission Board.

There are approximately 4,250 Baptist churches in Europe today, with 3,000 pastors and missionaries and 566,800 church members, it is announced by the headquarters of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and a considerable sum from this campaign will go toward succoring needy families of Baptists and others in the war torn regions as well as in the propagation of the gospel and the establishment of Christian institutions there. It is announced. Before sailing on the Adriatic on his European mission, Dr. Love made the following statement outlining the purpose of the commission:

"When the call came to help save, promote and secure democracy in Europe there came a louder call to help save, promote and secure evangelized Christianity in Europe. That which alone will now preserve and perfect the democracy for which brave men have died on the battlefield of Europe is the Christianity of the New Testament. Southern Baptists can no longer profess New Testament Christianity and decline a challenge like that which is now presented to them to bear witness to their faith among the peoples of Europe. Our people never before faced such a challenge and such a responsibility.

Of course we can not go to the men and women of Europe who have been stripped of earthly fortune and reduced to direst necessity with a message of Christian love and brotherhood if we decline in our abundance to carry some substantial pledge of our love and compassion. Mothers will not be able to stay the crying of their little ones to hear us preach if we decline to practice the gospel of compassion and feed these little ones and build fires at which they can during the coming winter warm their frost-bitten toes. Southern Baptists are under the most solemn obligation to help relieve the want and suffering of Europe. But if there were no reconstruction work in Europe, Southern Baptists have motives numerous enough and strong enough to compel them to make a complete success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. I would therefore, as my parting word to my brothers and sisters of the South, implore them to give themselves to this campaign and carry it to a triumphant conclusion during Victory Week, November 30-December 7."

BUNN, COLORED, IS MISSING

Fred Bunn, Jr., colored, eleven year old son of Fred Bunn, Sr., who lives on Run Road at the edge of town, took French leave of his home and his parents on last Monday week and has not been heard of since.

His father says that he knows of no reason the boy could have for leaving home except that he had for some time past been trying to fill various jobs about town without consulting his parents. This self sufficient tendency on the part of young Fred has been the cause of some domestic upheavals in which the parental hickory played a conspicuous and painful part.

The boy's father wants him to go to school and is very anxious to locate the lad. Any one knowing anything of the whereabouts of Fred Jr., will be doing both father and son a kindness in notifying Fred Bunn, R. F. D. 5, Elizabeth City.

ROBBERS HOLD UP RUSSIAN STEAMER

Botan, Canea, Aug. 29 via Paris, Sept. 16 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Six robbers, travelling as passengers commandeered the Russian steamer Constantine, on her latest trip between this port and Constantinople, and robbed a selected list of wealthy passengers of 30,000,000 rubles. The robbery was conducted with the daring and finish of an American train hold up.

The Constantine carried merchants from Tiflis, Baku, Bagdad and Erivan, proceeding to Constantinople to purchase goods, with cash in gold and Romanoff rubles for the purpose.

There was nothing to indicate the character of the robbers until the ship was within twelve hours of Bosphorus, when the captain and crew, at the point of pistols, were ordered forward and the engine stopped.

The leading merchants were lined list, and their persons and baggage up as their names were read from a searched. It was a case of all firearms on the deck and arms aloft. The crew and humbler passengers were not molested.

The captain was ordered to navigate his ship close to shore, the pile of firearms was tossed into a life boat, and the robbers moved to land. They immediately disappeared in the hills of Anatolia. The members of the crew who rowed them ashore received a handsome tip.
