Well, we suppose that we've seen the last of daylight saving. The Advance is thankful for two summers of it anyway.

With the coal situation as serious as it now appears it would seem that Bess City is fortunate in still having some remnant of its municipal wood-yard.

Greensboro's area is hardly more than that of Elizabeth City, but Greensboro's streets on Saturday look like Elizabeth City's on the Fourth of July. And we just haven't got the heart to compare the two towns in hotels and newspapers.

There's talk from organized labor of enlisting the aid of the farmer in "fighting out the life and death struggle of the workers now in progress." If The Advance knows anything about farmers there's a matter that will never get any further than talk.

The Advance almost wishes that it had been the New York dailies instead of the magazines that were tied up by the printers' strike. These New York dailies have been trying to hog up all the newsprint in sight and they have bulled the price to a figure that's likely to spell ruination to many a small publisher. The New York Times seems to be the chief sinner.

The story of Maynard's flight across the continent now appearing in the News and Observer is good reading. His achievement marks another great victory in the conquest of the air and hastens the day when each city will have its landing field for flying craft just as now it has a freight and passenger station for railway traffic. But why not provide this landing field for Elizabeth City before it gets to be the regular thing?

Hand it to Crisp of Dare. His argument for the landing of the NC-4 at Manteo moved the very stars in their courses to fight for him. And it is hard for The Advance to believe that the Crisp eloquence of the appeal from Dare had not moved the hard heart of Reed himself. The fact that weather conditions conspired to bring the NC-4 down at the very point where Crisp had urged that she land is one of the most remarkable coincidences of history.

The prospect of coal shortage this winter makes one sigh for a country cot and its well stocked wood yard.

Elizabeth City's parking ordinance is giving some trouble in that the ordinance provides that the car shall be parked so as not to take up the street more than twelve feet from the curb. The result is that when a number of cars are parked along a street a car in the middle of the block cannot get out until the car in front of or behind it is moved. This difficulty might be overcome and at the same time more of the street be left open for traffic if it were required that cars should be parked parallel with the curb and at intervals of twelve or fifteen feet.

AGONY COLUMN

SATURDAY I WAS IN GREENSBORO TO ATTEND A MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATION OF PUBLISHERS OF AFTERNOON PAPERS IN NORTH CAROLINA

AND OF COURSE I WENT 'ROUND TO SEE THE DAILY NEWS

IT WAS MY FIRST VISIT TO THE GATE CITY BUT I DIDN'T HAVE ANY TROUBLE FINDING WHERE THE NEWS DOES BUSINESS BECAUSE THERE'S A BIG ELECTRIC SIGN ON TOP OF THE NEWS BUILDING WHICH CAN BE SEEN THREE BLOCKS OFF

BUT WHEN I GOT TO WHERE I COULD SEE THE BUILDING ALL THE WAY DOWN FROM THE SIGN TO THE GROUND I WONDERED HOW SUCH A PAPER AS THE DAILY NEWS COULD COME OUT OF SUCH A BUILDING FOR HONEST TO GOODNESS FROM THE STANDPOINT OF OUTWARD APPEARANCE THE ADVANCE SHOP HAS GOT THE NEWS BEAT

BUT WHEN I WENT INSIDE AND A CUB SHOWED ME 'ROUND AND I SAW THE LONG BATTERY OF NEWS LINTYPES THAT RUN DAY AND NIGHT AND WHEN I SAW THE NEWS PRESS TOWERING IN THE AIR AND MAKING ME FEEL ABOUT THE SIZE OF THE LITTLE EDITOR AND THEN WHEN I HAD SEEN THE NEWS AD MAN STAND AT THE PHONE AND GET 'STEEN PAGES OF ADVERTISING WITHOUT LEAVING HIS TRACKS AND IN ALMOST LESS TIME THAN IT TAKES TO TELL IT I BEGAN TO UNDERSTAND HOW THE JOB OF TURNING OUT THE GREENSBORO NEWS IS DONE

AN FINALLY I WENT INTO THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT AND SAW GERALD JOHNSON AT HIS DESK AND I'LL BET JUST HAVING HIM THERE HELPS QUITE A LOT

AND HAVING NEITHER JOHNSON NOR THE BIG PRESS AND LACKING SO MUCH OF HAVING WHAT I NEED TO MAKE THE ADVANCE AS GOOD AS THE DAILY NEWS I'M JUST BOUND TO AGONIZE

AND WHATS MORE I'M GOING TO KEEP AGONIZING TILL I ARRIVE

I'VE BEEN ON THIS OLD BALL THIRTY-SEVEN YEARS AND I NEVER STARTED ANYTHING YET THAT I DIDN'T FINISH

I THANK YOU
