New York Still Making Desperate Effort to Recover From Worst Storm Since Year of 1888

(By Associated Press)
New York, Feb. 7.—Snowbound New York marshalled its forces today in a prodigious effort to extricate itself from the paralyzing grip of the storm which approached the blizzard of 1888.
All except the vitally necessary truck traffic was suspended for three days.
Department stores turned over their trucks to cart away the snow. The street cleaning department has 10,000 shovellers at work.
Traction companies are struggling grimly to restore traffic.
Many outlying towns are isolated. The coal and food situation is brighter today.
The newspapers are hard hit by newsprint shortage.

MISS MARY WINSOR

who speaks at the Alkrama Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the woman's party, has had thrilling experiences in the countries of Europe during the war. She is a graduate of Bryn Mawr and has taken post graduate courses at Columbia University. At the time war broke out she was in Germany, where she was investigating conditions of women. She fled from Germany into Austria, from there to Italy, then to France and on to England, thus witnessing mobilization in five countries.

Miss Winsor assisted the women of England in obtaining suffrage and has been a most ardent worker in this country. While she is a member of the militant party, she, as well as other members of the woman's party, believes that there is now no further need for militancy. Miss Winsor was a member of the Colonial Dames and a number of other organizations, but has now withdrawn from them in order to give her entire time to suffrage work.

There will be no admission fee and the public is cordially invited to hear her. The hour is three o'clock.

WINTERVILLE LOSES TO ELIZABETH CITY BOYS

Fighting all the way the Winterville High School basket ball team went down in defeat at the hands of the local High School at the "Y" Friday night. The most of the Winterville team were handicapped with vaccinated arms, but played a steady game. The superior team-work of the locals was responsible for their victory. The score was 54 to 14.
Tripp, at guard, and Tugwell, at forward, were the stars for Winterville.

The stars for Elizabeth City are hard to pick. Modlin stood out especially in the first half with nine field goals. But in the second half four Elizabeth City players, Modlin, Lamb, McMullen and F. Seyffert, secured three field goals each, which shows the uniformity of the playing. Jones did the best work at guard, but was not far superior to his teammates, C. Seyffert and Quinn.
The line-up is as follows:

Winterville	Eliz. City
Carroll	R. F. Modlin
Tugwell	L. F. Lamb
Davis	C. McMullen
Worthington	R. G. Jones
Tripp	L. G. C. Seyffert
Substitutes, E. City:	F. Seyffert
for Lamb, Winterville:	Croom for Worthington, Vandiford for Tugwell.
Field goals: Modlin (12), Lamb (5), McMullen (4), Jones (1), Carroll (2), Tugwell (3).
Foul goals: Modlin 3 out of 7; Lamb 3 out of 5; McMullen 1; Carroll 4 out of 11.
Referee and Umpire—Daniels and Holmes.

W. BEN GOODWIN, Secy.-Treas.

For the past year or two Mr. Commander has been farming in Virginia, eight miles from Norfolk, but he is an Elizabeth City man and was Elizabeth City's first City Manager.

Confronted with the necessity of securing a man immediately to take the office left vacant by the resignation of former Manager Simonds, the Council felt that the safest course under the circumstances was to get a tried man, if one were available. The committee got in touch with Mr. Commander and as soon as it was learned that he would consider the position he was invited to Elizabeth City to meet the committee appointed to recommend a new manager. Mr. Commander met this committee Friday, and his election this morning followed.

The new City Manager will assume the duties of his office next Tuesday morning, February 10th.

"I am not coming back to play politics," said Mr. Commander Saturday afternoon. "I am coming back to try to serve the town."

"If the people will help me, I believe I can succeed. If they continually try to cripple me, I will be unable to accomplish anything."

"There is one thing that I want you to put in your paper. I want you to say to the women of the city that I appreciate the help they gave me during my former administration, and that I ask for their support in the new administration that I am about to begin. It is in their power to be of great assistance to me."

Mr. Commander was in the city until the afternoon train for Norfolk Saturday.

The news of his election had got about the streets and while here he was being congratulated by a host of friends.
