SALVATION ARMY WANTS $4,000

And Have Local Organization Which Assures Drive's Going Over Top in Short Order

Four thousand dollars, instead of $4,000, is what the Salvation Army is asking of Elizabeth City on its 1920 budget.

With the corps of workers whom chairman W. P. Wood has called to his assistance to put the campaign over it would seem safe to predict that the amount required will be forthcoming in short order.

Mr. Wood has called a meeting of his co-workers for Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. at half past eight o'clock. At this meeting plans for the campaign will be formulated.

Calvin Twidly, of the Savings Bank and Trust Company, is associate chairman and county treasurer. M. Leigh Sheep is advisory chairman and also zone chairman for the entire counties adjacent to Pasquotank.

Committees have been appointed by the E. K. Old Fellow, American Legion, Moose, and Red Men. Other organizations will fall in line and the four thousand dollars will in all probability be forthcoming in short order.
