KNOWLES WILL PROBATED
The will of the late W. P. Knowles has been probated and is on record in the office of the Clerk of the Court, G. R. Little.

Mr. Knowles left no kith nor kin of his own, and his wife's niece, Miss Gladys Bright Rogers of Peterboro, England, was his chief heir.

To her he left all his real estate and all his personal property, except certain bequests to friends in the city and to the Oxford Orphanage.

To Mrs. C. W. Melick of this city he bequeathed his ferns, flags and views of cathedrals, framed and unframed.

To C. W. Melick, he left his ring and gold watch, and to the Oxford Orphanage, he left his library, excepting such books as belonged to the Bright family.

C. W. Melick was appointed executor of the will.

WILL SELECT TEXT BOOKS FOR CITY AND COUNTY

A committee composed of Miss Lucille Pass, of the Elizabeth City High School faculty, S. L. Sheep, superintendent of the city schools, M. P. Jennings, superintendent of the County schools, Ira T. Johnson, principal of Newland High School, and A. B. Combs, principal of the Elizabeth City High School, will meet Monday morning to adopt high school text books to be used in the County and city schools for the next four years.

A multiple list has been made out by the State Committee and the county committee is to select from this list such books as they consider best suited to the needs of the pupils. In a majority of cases the same books will be used in both county and city high schools.

HARMONY
in home appointments is just as necessary as is harmony between human beings. There's a right and a wrong in furniture, regardless of cost.

LITTLE LIVE LOCALS

Howard Flora spent Tuesday in Norfolk attending the Shriners ceremonial.

Guy F. White has returned to his home in this city after spending a few weeks in Baltimore.

Norman Trueblood left Wednesday night for Wake Forest to attend the commencement of Wake Forest College. His brother, Rev. E. J. Trueblood who was a member of the Glee Club and Orchestra, will graduate with the Class of '20. Before returning home, he will visit his sister, Mrs. George H. Jacobs, for a few days at her home in Goldsboro.

In the Superior Court.

The Texas Company, Plaintiff, vs.
Dare Lumber Company, defendant,
Order

It appearing to the court that the defendant, Dare Lumber Company is a non-resident of the State of North Carolina, and after due diligence can not be found in the state, and that the plaintiff has a good and meritorious cause of action against the defendant, over which this court has jurisdiction.

It is therefore ordered, and decreed, that publication be made in the "Advance", a newspaper published in Elizabeth City, N. C., for four successive weeks, notifying the defendant to appear on the 19th day of June 1920, and answer or demur as it may be advised, or judgement will be entered against it or the demands made in the complaint.

The defendant will further take notice that this an action instituted by the plaintiff to recover the amount of Twenty eight hundred and fifty one dollars and thirty four cents, with interest from February 9th, 1920, for merchandise sold and delivered to the defendant, consisting of oil, etc., the same being due by contract.

It is further ordered, that publication of notice in this cause shall be sufficient notice to the defendant.

May 26, 1920.
G. R. Little,
Clerk of Superior Court,
Pasquotank County.
May 27, June 4, 11, 18.

ANNOUNCEMENT by Miss Perry

I am now located in my own exclusive little millinery shop on Main street near the Southern Hotel and will introduce my new store by having a sale on millinery.

I find on account of the backward season I have quite a lot of splendid trimmed hats accumulated which I will offer for sale at a wonderful reduction. These will be divided into three lots. One lot of Spring models at exactly half price. Another lot at one third off. And all milans, leghorns, fancy straws and hair braid hats untrimmed at 25 per cent reduction.

I also have some lovely new models in sport hats in organdy, georgette, lace, maline and hair, also exquisite new feather hats and combination feather brim hats and georgette or taffeta.

Sale begins Wednesday, May 26. Lasts thirty days.
