

UPHAM ADDS TO HAYS FIGURES

Testifies Today Before Senate Committee Investigating Campaign Expenditures In Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The Republican National Committee received $1,017,255 in contributions for both state and national campaigns between June 14 and August 26. National Treasurer Upham testified today before the Senate committee.

Of this amount $618,000 was for the national campaign, he said, and presented the names of 12,589 contributors.

He presented a budget to show that the committee planned to spend $3,709,000.

Chairman White, of the Democrats, said he would tell the committee that the Democrats had collected $67,000.

Upham told of $700,000 to Hays' figures and stated that the Republican senatorial and congressional committees are to use separate funds. He said the National Committee was to advance this amount to two committees which would be returned.

Upham denied Cox's quota list and said that two banks in New York, one in Chicago, one in Boston and one in San Francisco contributed to the $360,000 borrowed by the committee and that loans do not constitute legal obligations on which banks could sue committee members.

Dr. J. L. McCabe Locates In Norfolk

Young Elizabeth City Doctor, After Service In Army, Resigns to Practice Profession

Dr. J. L. McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCabe, of Elizabeth City, has opened his offices in the new Monroe Building in Norfolk for general medical practice and orthopedic work.

Dr. McCabe, though quite a young man, has already made a splendid record in the medical profession and friends here had hoped that he might return to his home town to practice. On the other hand, they are glad that he is considerably nearer home than he has been in several years. A brilliant future is predicted for him by those who have met him to know him best.

After graduating from the Medical College of Virginia, Dr. McCabe spent a year with the noted surgeon Dr. Horsley of St. Elizabeth Hospital in Richmond.

It was from there that he entered the Army Medical Department and was ordered to Philadelphia to take a course in plastic surgery, later going to Ochsler hospital for training. From Ochsler he was ordered to the Base Hospital, Fox Hills, Staten Island, the largest emergency hospital in the United States, where he spent a year and a half. Next he was sent to France, where he did valuable service to his country.

Returning from France, Dr. McCabe was appointed surgeon in the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., the most equipped army hospital in the world, where he received his commission as captain in the Medical Department of the United States Army.

Dr. McCabe has just recently resigned the position to take up the practice of his profession in Norfolk.

Jollies of 1920 Sept. 9 and 10

Elizabeth City on Qui Vive—Elks Show to Eclipse All Former Shows

The High School auditorium will be agleam with light on September 9th and 10th. It will be the occasion of the two-day run of the "Jollies of 1920," which is the title of the Minstrel-Musical-Comedy-Vodville Revue being staged by the Elks.

The play is in two big beautiful acts, and it is no wonder Elizabeth City is already on the qui vive; there is a touch of minstrelsy during the first act—yes, quite a big touch and it recalls fond memories of the days when Primrose and West held down the "ends" in the burnt cork circle; it brings keenest recollections of joy to those who hold Lew Dockstadter, Al G. F. and the late Joney Boy Evans dear in their memory as exponents of high class minstrelsy, and everyone who has been fortunate enough to secure a ticket to the "Jollies of 1920," already feels sure that he will see a production which will eclipse anything of its kind ever presented in this city.

There will be forty-five home talent players in the company—40 on the star cast, each and every one a lyric of exceptional musical quality. Already the rehearsals are under way and are being held nightly at the Elks club. The whole show will bubble and boil and fairly sizzle with joy; there will be eight ball men. By all odds, it will be the best ends that have ever appeared in this city, and Guy Brackett will lead down the B. G. Broumard part of the interlude, easily conceded to be the most important part of the production. Much depends upon the "punch" of the music, but Guy Brackett is equal to the occasion. And the music will embrace everything from ragtime to selections from the opera "Sartre-Roebuck." The "Jollies" is replete with the catchiest music heard in recent years, and if you have not purchased your ticket as yet—don't delay.

All Elks have tickets, and a holder of these tickets can exchange them September 6th at Selig's jewelry store for reserved seats.

FUNERAL TOWE TWIFOLD

The funeral service of T. G. Twiford, who died at his home on Center street Sunday afternoon at two o'clock following a short illness, was conducted Monday afternoon at three o'clock from the home by Rev. J. W. Bradley. "Abide In Me" and "A-Long In Jesus" were nicely sung by the City Road No. 1 Church choir. The pallbearers were Messrs. Lloyd Perry, Tom Lantz, Winson Rogers, Roscoe Wynn, Leslie Pope, and M. P. Williams. A large crowd attended the funeral and the floral offerings were numerous. Interment was made in Hollywood.

GIANT SERPENT LEFT BY MOUND BUILDERS

Washington, O., Aug. 30.—A great serpent, 1,300 feet long, built of earth and stone, a symbol of the religion of an ancient peoples, stands a few miles from here as the most interesting and important earthwork left by the mound builders of Ohio.

Situated in a rather secluded spot, supposedly selected by the mound builders for privacy in performing their ancient rites, the massive reptile winds, gracefully back from a glen to higher land. The serpent's head rests upon a rock platform which presents a precipitous face to the descending sun and is about 100 feet high. The jaws of the mouth are widely extended in the act of swallowing an egg, represented by an oval ridge of earth.

As the mound builders shaped the body they caused it to make four large folds as it tapered back to the tail, which is folded in three complete and close coils.

The land about this curious relic of primitive days is low at the head, but gradually ascend toward the tail. There is ample room on all sides for a gathering of many people and the belief is expressed that the idol worshippers gathered on all sides of their altar to pour forth praise or beseech forgiveness and blessing from the beautifully hidden god of their own creation.

"The Serpent Mound" was purchased by Professor F. W. Putnam, of the Peabody Museum, Cambridge, Mass. in 1887, along with about 70 acres of adjacent land and shortly afterward a beautiful public park was laid out on the ground. This in present days the spot of reverence sacred to the people who presented civilization in the nation's history as a sure savor.

The deed to the land, playground for picnickers and pleasure seekers. The deed to the land is vested in the museum attached to Harvard University.

Those who have made a study of the work of the mound builders have estimated that in Ohio alone there are over 10,000 mounds and from 1,500 to 2,000 enclosures standing as monuments to their work. By the study of ancient implements and burial places found in and near these mystery hills it has been found possible to form a conception of their life.

Messrs. William and W. T. Brasley and Joe Brickhouse, of Columbia, were in this city Tuesday afternoon.

AMERICA RANKS NEXT TO BRITAIN

London, Aug. 31.—According to Lloyds Register of Shipping for 1920-21 just issued, the seagoing tonnage of the United States apart from Great Lakes shipping, has increased since 1914 by over 500 per cent and now stands at 12,406,000 tons. Thus the United States comes second only to the United Kingdom which has 18,111,000 tons.

Japan which in 1914 took sixth place, is now third, with 2,996,000 tons, closely followed by France, with 2,963,000 tons.

Including sailing ships, but excluding tonnage on the Great Lakes, the United States now owns 24 per cent of the world's tonnage, as against 47 per cent six years ago, the Register states.

The figures shown for the former belligerent countries include a considerable amount of enemy tonnage provisionally allocated to those countries. Germany, which in 1914 occupied, after the United Kingdom, the first position with over 5,000,000 tons of shipping, now owns only 419,000 tons.

The steam tonnage owned by the principal maritime countries in June, 1920 totaled 53,905,000, an increase of 8,501,000 tons as compared with June, 1914; but it is computed that the world's net loss in shipping through the war, taking into account the suspension in normal shipbuilding activities, amounts to 3,516,000 tons.

There is a reduction in sailing tonnage since pre-war days of 614,000 tons in normal shipbuilding activity, a much smaller decrease than in any previous six year period and doubtless accounted for, says the Register, by the shortage of other tonnage having given new life to the construction of sailing vessels. The United States, the only country which has increased sailing tonnage since 1914, now owns over 43 per cent of the world's sailing tonnage.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY" PLEASES LARGE CROWD

Few pictures, perhaps none except the "Birth of a Nation," have so thoroughly pleased an audience as the special First National Production, "In Old Kentucky," which was shown at the Alhambra Theater last night, and will be shown again today. Ask anyone who saw it.

Alfita Stewart plays the stellar role in the play, which has everything to make it a great picture, and Marshall Nathan in himing it was able to introduce realistic scenes of life which add even to the interest and dramatic qualities of the famous play from which it was taken.

Set in the Old South among the Blue Grass fields of Kentucky, the picture is a real boy hunt, a picture that will make you rise up and yell out from sheer excitement, a picture with love, story, grand and beautiful old negro characters, and a beautiful picture of a life that will furnish two hours' genuine enjoyment.

Elks Capture Third Straight

Stellar Pitching of Davis Offsets by Costly Red Errors In Sixth Inning

Two errors and two men hit by pitched balls in the sixth inning yesterday afternoon gave the third game of the Twilight League championship series to the Elks by the score of 2 to 1. In spite of the fact that Davis, pitching for the Reds, put across a brand of boxwork that prevented the Elks from getting a single clean hit throughout the game. The consensus of opinion among the fans was that Davis deserved to win his game, but the fatal slump in the sixth on the part of Dennis and Woodley, in the Red infield gave the fan feeling and usually hard hitting, Elks, the lead of one run which decided the game. But two clean hits were registered against the Reds on the mound for the Elks who were in excellent form throughout the contest. In the final analysis, the reason for the defeat of the Reds yesterday was merely that the Elks controlled their pitcher better up here.

Well, those three will be their credit in the championship series, and needing only one more victory to carry off the pennant and the silver trophy, the Elks are looking for today's game to close the series in triumph for them. Pratt Fearing, manager of the Reds, however, declares that the latter will work just as hard as if they had won a previous contest. Indeed, it is not impossible for the Red to duplicate the performance of their opponents by winning three in a row to-day even today's game proves to be a last one.

HUNS MARK 'EM MADE IN AMERICA

Exporters Follow This Plan In Shipping Surplus of Inferior German Goods to Great Britain

Washington, Aug. 31.—Germany is dumping her surplus of inferior goods into the United States and England, and is marking exports to Great Britain "Made in America" as a result of official advice received here today.

The German export to the United States this practice in order to sell in the United States, which otherwise would be sold on account of the tariff.

DETROIT PLANS TO HOUSE ITS PEOPLE

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 31.—The Detroit Board of Commerce will stand back of the Detroit Housing Corporation proposal to float a bond issue of $600,000 for building additional homes for workers in the city. This was made clear when 95 per cent of the board membership endorsed the idea. Virtual pledges on the part of the entire membership of the board were made to subscribe most of the fund.

The commercial organization has just completed a survey tending to show that the growth of Detroit, both in population and industry, is being retarded by the house shortage. It was revealed that workers are paying from $70 to $100 per month for places in which to live and that many workmen either are leaving Detroit for other cities or are threatening to do so.

It is hoped that the members of the board are asked to buy one in demerit bonds of $100,000 and $1,000, maturing and usually they are to be secured by mortgages.

William Sturtevant, secretary of the board, reported a list of 100 names of persons who were to be secured by mortgages. The number of persons was 504 fewer than in July, 1919.

Warsaw, Aug. 31.—Letvia agrees to permit Poland and Russia to transfer the Minsk peace conference to Riga.

Looks To America For Motor Vehicles

Washington, Aug. 31.—The whole world seems to be demanding motor vehicles and is looking to the United States for its supply. Records of the Department of Commerce for the year 1920, just ended, show that automobiles and parts of automobiles valued at $232,252,376 were shipped from this country. This was nearly nine times the total value of such exports before the war.

The number of commercial cars exported during the 12 months ended June 30 was 24,356, valued at $41,577,684 as compared with 12,924 valued at $1,233,485 in 1919. Passenger car shipments showed an even greater increase, the total being 115,519 valued at $125,384,925 as compared with 41,291 valued at $45,852,705 the year before.

The United Kingdom led in the imports of both commercial and passenger cars, taking 4,593 of the former and 17,528 of the latter. Canada was second in the matter of both types of cars taking 2,443 commercial and 9,993 passenger vehicles. Cuba imported 4,663 passenger cars and 1,526 commercial automobiles. Brazil was next behind Canada in imports of passenger cars to the total of 6,169. British India imported 8,144 passenger cars and British South Africa 5,752. Australia took 5,898, Argentina 3,343 and New Zealand 5,238 passenger cars.

The demand for American machines brought with it a corresponding demand for equipment. The value of automobile tires exported during the fiscal year of 1920 was $29,919,777 as compared with $22,626,200 the year before. The total of automobile engines shipped was 29,421, valued at $6,070,499, compared with 28,445 valued at $4,434,244 the year before.

RAIS COMMUNAL CURRENCY

Vienna, Aug. 19.—The Tyrol government has prohibited the further issuance of communal fractional currency, which has been a scandal in the Austrian states. It was found that none of the notes were in circulation, but they had been sold to collectors at enormous profit. Some issues of ten and twenty heller notes have sold for a high as eighty to 100 crowns a piece.

The craze of raising currency had spread to Austria and associations of various kind, among those printing, have been formed to raise money in the name of the Tyrol government. A suggestion of Austria.
