The Chautauqua tent has arrived and the tent crew are getting everything ready for the Seven Joyous Days, which begin on Friday afternoon, when the first program by the Four Artists is given. Let's get out every time and from the inspiration of Chautauqua unite for Community Service and make it Three Hundred and Sixty-five Joyous Days.
Why not? Life is more than meat and raiment.

We suggest that the committee add to the Music Memory Contest the "Song of the Mosquito" as sung by ole Mis' Skeeter and the whole bunch of little gal skeeters, for at least, that's one musical selection that we have opportunity to become familiar with. Fact is, the mosquito gets entirely too familiar with us during the summer season.

Commencement this year has clearly shown how interested the people are in the school, and how badly an adequate auditorium is needed. Given the former, we certainly should be able to get the latter.

Well, here's to the Class of '25, and hoping that they'll every one answer to roll call at diploma time four years from now.

Celebration For Mr. Small In yesterday's Daily News it was stated that plans and arrangements were being made for a home-coming celebration to take place next week in honor of ex-Congressman John H. Small.

Mr. Small has served this district for twenty-two years, and he has served it well. Therefore, it is only fitting and proper that his home town should turn out and give him due recognition of his services.

It is desired to make the occasion a memorable one, to which Mr. Small can always look back with pleasure. For this reason it is hoped that as many persons from the country, as can possibly do so, will be here on next Tuesday night to join with the people of Washington in paying honor to Mr. Small.

When a prominent man dies, it is the custom to eulogize him and pay tribute to his memory.
But why wait until death?
Why not show him while he is alive that his services are appreciated?

And that is what it is hoped to do for Mr. Small. The town wants to show him, while he is alive, that the people "back home" respect and honor him for his services. Therefore, it is hoped that the people generally will co-operate in helping to make Tuesday's occasion the unqualified success that it deserves to be.—Washington

Dare Potatoes
Move Very Slowly Manteo, June 1.—The slump in the price of potatoes has been most discouraging to Dare County truckers, many of whom are leaving their potatoes in the ground in the hope of better prices. About 500 barrels have been shipped and probably about twice that number are still in the ground on Roanoke Island.

Ran Amuck And Lodged In Jail Manteo, June 1.—Arthur Jones, of East Lake, young, powerful and carrying a full cargo of monkey rum, ran amuck at Manteo Monday night, taking forcible possession of a bicycle, that happened to strike his fancy, defying all efforts to get it away from him and raising disturbance generally. He was finally lodged in jail but only after the sheriff had deputized a half dozen assistants and the prisoner had been bodily carried into the lockup.

Sober and in his right mind Tuesday morning, Jones submitted to a charge of disturbing the peace, was let off by Mayor Baum with a fine of $15.00 and taxed with the costs.

SCORES LABOR UNIONS
Atlantic City, June 1.—Brooks Morgan, of Atlanta, today scored the labor unions for alleged interference with industry in his speech to the biscuit and cracker manufacturers here.

Court In Dare
But Little Doing Manteo, June 1.—No criminal cases of major importance are on the calendar for trial at this term of Dare County Court, though it is understood that the criminal docket is long enough to take up most of the week.
Only two cases were disposed of on Tuesday, the opening day.

Two Daniels, of Wanchese, charged with statutory offense, was taxed with the costs and required to give $100.00 bond for good behavior.
Eddie Williams, Richard Scarborough, Ellis Gray, Curtis Gray, Alton Williams and Jesse Gray, charged with trespass, were acquitted.
The rest of the first day was taken up with hearing the testimony of George W. Farrow and De Fuischer, of Frisco, defendants in an affray case.
