A Long String Of Horses Here For District Fair

Many Fast Trotters Already On Scene For The Races Beginning Next Tuesday, Opening Day Of 1921 District Fair At This City

Nineteen fast trotters and pacers are already stabled at the grounds of the Albemarle Agricultural Fair Association to await the opening of the 1921 District Fair at Elizabeth City next Tuesday, October 4th, and to take part in the eight races scheduled for the four days, for purses aggregating $2,400, the largest ever offered at horse races here. Entries for many more racers have been received and it is freely predicted that between 60 and 75 horses will be entered in the various events.

Among the local entries is Rosa B, a four-year-old that has taken first and second money in every race she has entered this season. This fast little pacer falls in the 2:24 1/2 class, and has raced to victory this summer at Mariner, Gaylight and Roanoke, Va., and at Bluefields, W. Va. This week she is at Lynchburg, and is expected here by Sunday, in time to rest up and be ready for the District Fair racing events.

The 19 entries already on the grounds are Mabel G, 2:24 1/2, entered by J. W. Hurdle of Winfall; Milk Boy, by Orlando Jordan of Hertford; Lee Hall, by Sidney Jessup of Winfall; Lizzie, by Tom Forbes of Belvidere; Selim X, by Jim Simpson of Elizabeth City; Prince, by Willis Leary of Currituck; Marrie Setzer, trot, 2:18 1/2; Clayton E, pace, 2:16 1/2; Michigan Boy, trot, 2:21 1/2; Moks Oliver, trot, 2:24 1/2; and Kirby Direct, pace, 2:11 1/2, all by J. W. Clark of Winton. G. H. Gould of Woodland has entered and on the grounds Baron Nowisky, pace, Lady Courage, trot, 2:24 1/2; Ruby Britt, pace, Roblitt R, pace, and Bettie Baker, pace, 2:13 1/2. Mordecai, a trotter with a record of 2:16 1/2, has been entered by J. W. Walker of this city, and Leslie B. Armstrong has entered Billy Dale, pace, 2:03 1/2, and H. E. W., trot, 2:24 1/2. These horses are all stabled on the grounds and are receiving their final training in preparation for the fair races next week.

Among the leading strings of horses expected to arrive in the next day or two is that of James & Beloit of Eastern Shore, Va., which includes three 2:25 pacers, Peter Elkin, Peter Gall, and Bettie M. James & Beloit will also enter Roy Boy, trot, 2:18; Myrtle Oliver, trot, 2:30; Virginia Guy, trot 2:24 1/2, and J. Potter, pace, 2:17.

Jerry Garrett of Norfolk is expected to bring Ruth Palmer, 2:22, and Doc Anna, 2:25, both trotters, and Tobe, a pacer with a record of 2:14 1/2. Seth Lovitt of Portsmouth, has entered Portsmoth Boy, pace, 2:25; Harold Fast, pace, 2:25; June McKinney, trot, 2:30; and Keneth, trot, 2:18.

J. H. Williamson's string includes Lee W., trot, 2:36, belonging to Lonnie Sherlock of this city, Jack Stokes, trot, 2:29 1/2, Jolly K, trot, 2:28 1/2, belonging to C. C. Thompson of this city.

Riding devices, tents, booths and other trappings of West's Bright Light Shows have already been put up, and the Fair Grounds even now present the gala spectacle that is in keeping with Fair Week. Every indication points to the biggest, best, and most enjoyable Fair that has ever been held at Elizabeth City.

FLAT RATE FOR USE OF BRIDGE

The formal contract signed Wednesday afternoon arranging for free passage of the Pasquotank River bridge provides that the State shall pay the Ferry Company $1500 for the two months' use of the bridge. This is less than the regular tolls amount to for months of heavy traffic such as October and November, and far less than they would have amounted to had the Ferry Company collected from the State on the basis first outlined by Commissioner Hart. Although the arrangement with the Ferry Company was that the bridge keeper should collect regular tolls for night traffic, the company has today decided to give the people free ferrriage both night and day.

'Microbe Of Love' Here Friday Night

Young Woman's Club Is Putting On Clean, Jolly Show For Home Town People And Others

Tickets for "The Microbe of Love" the musical play to be presented Friday night under the auspices of the Young Women's Club are going rapidly and indications are that a full house will be on hand at the rise of the curtain.

Indicating how greatly Columbia, S. C., was pleased with the show, a telegram was received yesterday by Miss Apphia Jackson, the director, requesting that Columbia be given a return engagement. Columbia papers declared it the best home talent production ever staged in that city.

The comedy abounds with tuneful scores, with a beauty chorus of about 30 Elizabeth City girls. The comedy parts are well handled, and many local hits that sparkle with wit will be pulled. Local bachelors come in for the bulk of the shafts of wit.

The play will be staged at the High School auditorium, special scenery and costumes being used. The curtain will be raised at 8:15 promptly.

TWO-PANTS NOT TWO-PIECE ARE BOY SUITS AT TURNER'S

"You made a serious mistake in our ad today," said T. T. Turner of T. T. Turner & Company to the Advance man last night, "a mistake that destroyed the point of the whole advertisement. We were advertising boys' two-pants suits; that is, suits for boys with extra trousers, and the ad read 'boys two piece suits.' Despite the gravity of the error, Mr. Turner, as usual, still wore the million dollar smile that he says comes of wearing "Smile Hats," and men who can smile over a typographical error in their advertising are so rare that The Advance man sincerely hopes that this correction will straighten out any misapprehension that may have arisen from this advertisement. T. T. Turner & Company is "The Store for Dad and the Boys," you know; and it has been making a specialty of "Tu-pants" suits for boys for quite a while and has been having a brisk trade in them. The firm was also advertising yesterday men's all-wool suits from $18 to $40, as well as "the newest things in clothing, caps, hats and furnishings generally."

Main Street Furniture Store Show Windows Transformed

Passers-by have noted a complete transformation in the front show windows at the M. G. Morrisette Furniture Company this week. There's a reason, and it's a good one. On one day this week Mr. Morrisette had a string of customers who bought out every suite of furniture on display in these windows; in fact everything in sight in the windows from the southeast entrance to the stove section. Mr. Morrisette will have another Saturday special in tomorrow's issue, similar to that of last week when he offered a suite of living room furniture bought to sell
