

Plenty Baseball Here Next Week

Locals Have Six Games Scheduled—Two on Fourth of July

Local baseball fans will have plenty of opportunities to enjoy their favorite pastime next week. Beginning Monday through Friday the locals will have a game every day in the week. Monday the locals will play the strong reorganized Hertford team, a team boasting of the strongest collection of semi-professional players in this section. Tuesday the locals will journey to Tyner where they play a return game with that team.

On Wednesday, the fourth of July, the locals will play two games. In the morning they play Edenton at Edenton, returning here in the afternoon to play Edenton in the local diamond. On Thursday Hertford is given a return game in Hertford while on Friday the Riverside team of Norfolk the fastest amateur team in that city, will come here for a game.

Within the past week fast teams have been organized in Hertford and Plymouth and schedules are being mapped out to arrange a series of games with those teams. Edenton and Hertford already being scheduled for a series. The support shown the local team has been very gratifying and with the continuance of good patronage, Elizabeth City can be assured of good baseball for the remainder of the season.
