*If with pleasure you are viewing
Any work that man is doing,
If you like him, love him, tell him NOW.
Don't withhold your approbation
Till the Parson makes oration,
As he lies, with lillies o'er his brow.
For no matter how you shout it,
He won't know a thing about it
Or the tear drops you have shed.
So if you think some praise is due him,
Now is the time to give it to him,
For he can't read the tombstone when he's dead.*
