

MADE MONEY?

It is reported that Lieutenant Isborne Cutler Wood, son of General Leonard Wood, governor-general of the Philippines, will resign his commission soon. He is reported to have made nearly a million dollars in Wall street speculations, and is about to enter the diplomatic service.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

In 1824— Abraham Lincoln, a lad of fifteen years, was working on a ferry boat on the Ohio for $6 a month.

The Marquis of Lafayette visited America, and was received with tremendous acclaim by crowds of cheering people wherever he went.

Steam ferries were operated for the first time between New York and Brooklyn.

An epidemic of yellow fever was raging in Louisiana.

The manufacture of flannel by water power was first started at Amesbury, Massachusetts.

An English bricklayer named Joseph Aspidin, took out a patent for a material he called "portland cement," naming it "portland" because when it hardened it resembled a gray stone found on the Isle of Portland off the coast of England. The name has stuck ever since and the modern portland cement industry has been developed from Aspidin's discovery.

The Erie canal, connecting the Great Lakes with New York, was rapidly nearing completion. The first steamboat passed through the canal from Rochester to Albany.

Anthracite coal was used for the first time in New York.

The Colorado beetle, commonly known as the potato bug, made its first appearance in Wisconsin.

The first three story brick house had just been completed in Brooklyn, N. Y. The town had a population of 7,000. The houses had just been numbered and some of the streets paved.

M. Niepce, a Frenchman, working with his countryman, Daguerre, discovered the science that led to the invention of the daguerreotype in 1838.

There was much excitement throughout the country over the presidential election, due to the large number of candidates. John Quincy Adams represented the East, Crawford the South, and Clay and Jackson the West.

WIESBADEN THEATRE REBUILT
Wiesbaden, January 1—The state theater of Wiesbaden which was well patronized by officers and doughboys when the American troops were in Coblenz and which was badly damaged by fire last March, has been rebuilt and, it is claimed, has the most modern stage in Europe.

Special precautions against another fire have been taken throughout the house. On the stage about 300 automatic fire alarm connections have been installed.
