Oh Boy!

Fruit plenty may be seen at the Florida Show held in New York City at Madison Square Garden. Photo shows Mrs. J. A. Dew of Palm Beach county about to pluck some choice nuts.

Military in Charge

ANATOLE FRANCE

Silk and Twill

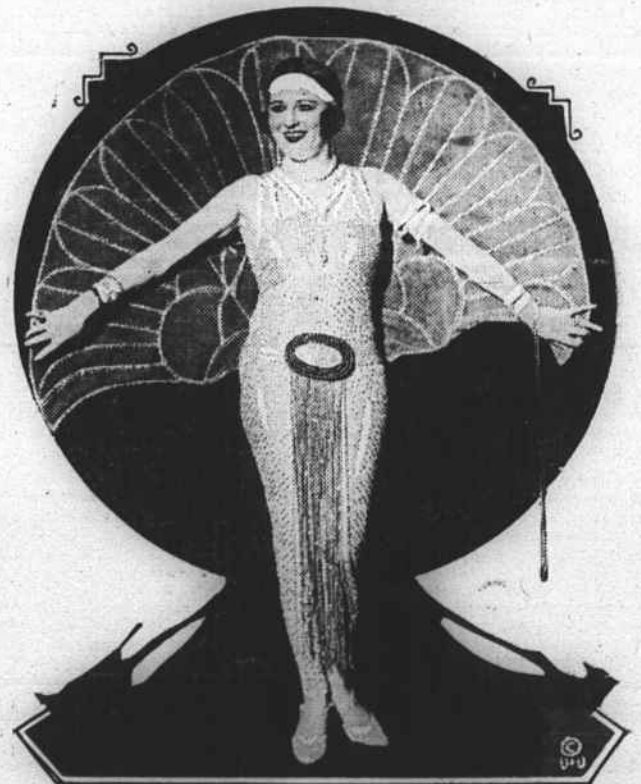

This dress of silk and twill shows the beltless style in a tunic effect. The underlay is of figured silk, the tunic of twill or rep. There is a sash belt that you may tie on the side or in the back as you wish.

New Model

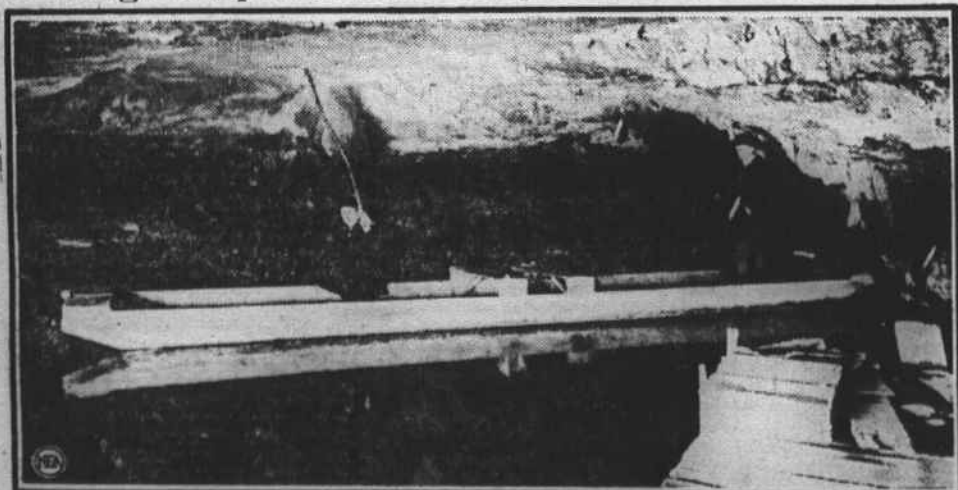

The dress made of two materials is seemingly more popular than ever. There is something pleasing in the combination of a plain and a figured fabric provided the colors are harmonious and such dresses usually dispense with other trimming.

Believe It Or Not!

Alice Delysia, French actress, now appearing on Broadway, wore a gown of diamonds and pearls worth $2,000,000 at one performance. No kidding! A dozen detectives and a score of other strong-arm men were standing about when the photographer prepared to snap his shutter.

Frogs Output of This Unique Subterranean Farm

Robert Smith, near Springfield, Mo., has an underground frog farm. A boat is necessary to reach the farm. Thousands of frogs are raised here the year around, and they bring fancy prices in the St. Louis market.

Getting Ready for a General's Feet

Mexican generals are accorded every honor. Thus before General Serrano came into Puebla soldiers scrubbed the platform so he wouldn't have to walk in dirt from the train.
