What's harder'n buyin' a dime's worth o' picture postal cards an' then tryin' t' think who t' send 'em to?

Yes, we have Congressional candidates today—but no cuts thereof in The Advance.

Buying unadvertised goods is just like taking an anonymous letter at its face value.

Candidates will find what we believe will be an interesting announcement in today's want-ad column.

Despite the fact that Elizabeth City has a new bank this week, The Advance seems to find money as hard to get as it's ever been.

Speaking, it feels sure, for the whole town in general and for its women in particular, The Advance welcomes Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson to Elizabeth City.

With Mr. Ball from Nixonton, Mr. Hobbs from Salem, Mount Hermon, Providence and Newland still have the opportunity to come forward with a candidate for sheriff.

We are a bit hard-hearted we know in this matter of requiring payment for candidate cards in advance, but there's nobody harder to collect from than a defeated candidate, and we just know that all of 'em can't win.

The editor doesn't get much opportunity to get out of town any more, having found it impossible for the last year and a half even to get to Currituck Court. But he would certainly like to attend those Dare County school commencements.

We rise again to remark that the country correspondence of this newspaper, though far from what we hope to make it, is growing better and better. We have some mighty good correspondents and we are proud of them. But, as yet, we haven't enough of them.

Readers of The Advance whose subscriptions will expire while Lawrence's story of Woodrow Wilson is running would do well to check up on this fact and arrange to send in their renewals before their names are taken off the list—if they are as anxious as we suppose not to miss a single chapter of the book.

We claim to be neither an impartial nor an unprejudiced judge, but page for page The Daily Advance is the most interesting newspaper we read. Same with you?

Having always heard C. L. Ball referred to as of Weeksville, The Advance made the not unnatural mistake, in announcing his candidacy for the office of sheriff, of assuming that he lived in Salem township. We are glad to give Mr. Ball space to correct this error in today's issue.

THE PUBLIC FORUM

LIVES IN NIXONTON

Editor The Advance, I wish to call your attention to the writeup on March 3 regarding my announcement for Sheriff of Pasquotank, saying I lived in Salem township, which is incorrect. I live seven miles from Elizabeth City on the Weeksville brick road in Nixonton township, considered the largest township in this County.
