Sixth Birthday

Miss Gertrude Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Riggs, entertained a host of her friends in honor of her sixth birthday at her home at 101 North Martin street Wednesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in jonquils and roses and the Easter idea was carried out in the refreshments. Baskets filled with Easter eggs were given as favors. Little Miss Riggs received a various number of gifts. After playing games in the yard refreshments were served by Mrs. W. S. Riggs, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Garrett, Mrs. Frank Weeks, Mrs. Lizzie H. Forbes, Mrs. T. S. Mann and Mrs. Brandon Davis. The little ones enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Riggs were: George and Connie Paulos, Annie Elizabeth and Fitecher Bailey, Miriam Gregson, Jack and Earl Weeks, Judson Davis, Frances and Raymond Grant, Eleanor Raper, and Junior and Helen Garrett.

MEETING POSTPONED TO NEXT TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The literary department of the Woman's Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Southern Hotel. The meeting scheduled for this week was postponed on account of the death of J. G. Hollowell.

HAD GOOD MEETING

The Myra Ormond Circle of the First Methodist Church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. R. Taylor. Eighteen members and two visitors were present. After an interesting program delicious refreshments were served.

C. E. Garrett of Second street is spending some time at Hatteras on business.

Fashion News Notes

Copyright, 1924, by The Advance

Paris, March 28—There must be a floppy handkerchief and a scarf. Few present day costumes are complete without both, and the floppier as well as the brighter, the smarter.

Paris, March 28—The frock with one fastening, or at the most, two, is as popular today as it is convenient. One such gown of woolly crepe fastens at the neck with a sort of narrow shirt band, and again at the left hip.

London, March 28—The lace cape, rather longer than heretofore, but hanging only from the back of the shoulders, has a sartorial echo in the lace panel on the front of the gown. This point imitates the under petticoat that went with the pannier gown of olden days.

New York, March 28—A military twist is given to a rainy day costume by the newest umbrella. Not only is the umbrella done in a braw

Scotch tartan, but it is fitted with a heavy, long silk cord and by means of this is worn, knapsack fashion, swung over the shoulder.

New York, March 28—The wide plain buckle seen on so many pumps just now is not always of brass or bronze. Sometimes it is of black patent leather, or of shiny leather in a gay color.

INDIANTOWN BRIEFS

Indiantown, March 28—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dough and little daughter, Doris Elizabeth, were in the city Friday shopping.

P. P. Gregory motored to Elizabeth City Saturday on business.

C. T. Dough, and W. W. Dough and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dough were among those from Camden who went to Shawboro Sunday morning to hear Rev. W. J. Byrum's last sermon there.

Rev. W. J. Byrum left Monday to join his wife and little son at Winston Salem.

Mrs. J. G. Sanderlin and son of Norfolk spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sanderlin.

Mrs. G. G. Sanderlin is improving after an attack of appendicitis.

"O, Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

If you made doughnuts today—if you used Calumet Baking Powder—don't wonder—don't search—look in the pantry. He's probably there, the little rascal, getting his "fill" of those golden brown goodies. It's a big temptation—even for "grown-ups"—those wholesome and nutritious doughnuts.

Housewives who are particular about the purity of the foods they serve—and the majority of them are—never fail to ask for Calumet when they buy Baking Powder. They know by the "time-and-again" tests right in their own kitchens, that it is the highest in quality—lowest in cost and greatest for results.

CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

Best by Test

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce cans instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
