STOMACH FELT LIKE A WEIGHT
But John C. Beisswanger, of Reading, Says Paw Paw Rid Him of the Pain

What Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic did for Mr. Beisswanger, it can do for YOU. Try it. It costs only $1 a bottle at any good drug store. "There's a Munyon Pill for Every Ill." Munyon's, Scranton, Pa.

LONG LIVE THE KING AT ALKRAMA TODAY
"Long Live the King," shown at the Alkrama theater today was adapted for Jackie Coogan from Mary Roberts Rinehart's novel of the same name. The plot is set in the mythical Balkan kingdom of Lavonia and hinges around the escapades of the little Crown Prince (played by Jackie), who is beset by a band of terrorists who threaten to seize the government. The book is fascinatingly told, filled with romance and excitement aplenty. The producers of the film version of "Long Live the King" have retained these essentials of a good romance and Jackie is said to have one of the best roles of his career as the adventurous Prince Otto.

"Eighteen years ago I had three ribs broken; fourteen years ago my right leg; eleven years ago I nearly went over with typhoid fever and since then have had awful stomach and liver trouble. Was filled with gas most all the time. I would have colic attacks so bad as to become unconscious. No medicine helped me and doctors advised an operation. One day talking with a stranger he recommended May's Wonderful Remedy, which helped me at once."
