

NEWS OF THE DAY IN PICTURES

"Pen" Is Mightier Than Lawmaking

Lady Philipson, who shares honors with Lady Astor as a woman pioneer in the British parliament, photographed on her farm to which she will soon retire, according to a recent announcement.

Things Aren't What They Seem

Glancing at this photograph you'd be inclined to think that the two women were enjoying a sun bath in the backyard. It's hard to believe that both of these happy looking women were photographed in the yard of the Georgia State Prison farm where, if their sentences are carried out, they must spend the remainder of their days. Mrs. Ollie Justis, shown above, with her dog was sentenced to life for the murder of De Witt Turner of Atlanta. Below Mrs. Cora Lou Vinson, who was sentenced to be hanged but was saved from the noose by a second trial. She murdered her husband, a prominent physician.

Well, Here He Is!

Exclusive photograph of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Cushing 3rd, taken just after the child had been christened Harry Cushing 4th. Mrs. Cushing was the former Cathleen Vanderbilt. The baby is being carried by the family nurse.

Gorgeous Georges Arrives

Georges Carpentier, snapped upon the deck of the liner Majestic, when he arrived in New York, apparently in good form for his bout with Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City. With him is Francois Descamps, his manager.

Go' Bye Georges! Fight Hard

News photo of street ovation being given in Paris to Georges Carpentier a few days before he sailed for the United States for his bout with Tommy Gibbons.

A Chip of the Old Crown

Latest and exclusive photograph of Master Lascelles, son of Princess Mary of England and Lord Lascelles, and grandson of King George. Note the resemblance to members of England's ruling family.

It's Sure Fierce to Be a Freak

The wistful-eyed Aardvark, the only one of its kind in an American zoo, has never been able to figure out just what he is. He feels that nature has played some sort of jokes on him. He has ears of a burro, a head resembling a wolf and a deer, a tail like a kangaroo and legs in a class by themselves. It eats ants and ground-up grasshoppers. However, it's worth $1000, which is a lot of money for an Aardvark. Also it comes from South Africa and has taken up apartments at the Bronx (N. Y.) Zoo.

Separate

The popular separate blouse and skirt for summer are here shown making the perfect ensemble. The overblouse is of white crepe de chine heavily overdotted with tiny black dots, with a white collar and a pleated jabot. The skirt is of red and white stripes, pleated. The blouse would be equally smart with a suit skirt or with one of flannel or plain material.

Resort Favorite

This type of costume was the favorite at Palm Beach and is expected to be at all the summer resorts this season—just a simple pleated outfit of white canton crepe embroidered at the belt, sleeves and neckline. It is the simplest of all frocks to make at home because the pleater does the work. It is lovely in delicate colors or even in black.

Cuts Wood on 107th Birthday

Joseph Beland, of Tancredia, Calumet Island, Quebec, who saved and split a cord of wood on his 107th birthday by way of getting a little exercise. And the job didn't fatigue him.

They Almost Caused Riot

The American Olympic rugby, football team, whose winning of the Olympic contest in Colombes Stadium, Paris, all but started a riot. Hissed and booed by the Paris crowds the Yankee boys played a great game. First fights took place in the stand when Americans cheered their team.