C. M. B. Class Meets

The C. M. B. Class of Blackwell Memorial church met in the church parlors Thursday evening with 20 members and four visitors present. After the roll was called and matters of interest had been discussed, a delightful social hour was enjoyed. This was followed by a delicious ice course served by the hostess, Mrs. J. H. Hale.

Entertains Little Friends

Miss Anna Elizabeth Bailey delightfully entertained a number of her little friends Wednesday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock at her home on Martin street in honor of her sixth birthday. A large birthday cake and six tiny candles formed the lovely centerpiece for the table where dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Iola Hathaway and Helen Garrett. Pretty balloons given as favors and games were the entertaining features of the occasion. The hostess received many beautiful and useful gifts. Those present were Misses Vergie Hughes, Louise Fletcher, Mayo Armstrong, Mary Louise Hughes, Doris Parker, Sara Scott, Dorothy Parker, Frances Small, Maxine Daniels, Jeanne Armstrong, Gertrude Riggs, William Parker, Ruth Hildred Benton, Jeanne Tuttle, Iola Hathaway, Beth Whitehurst, Sara Seeley, Helen Garrett, Louise Barton, Eleanor Raper, Messrs James Bright, Clarence Thompson, Jr., Robert Lamb, George Owens, Jr., Jack Weeks, George Bailey, Judson Davis, Fletcher Bailey, Junior Swindell, William Fletcher and Raymond Grant.

Soothing for Tired Nerves

SCIENTISTS tell us that tea is rich in vitamins—nature's re-vitalizers. This is why the pleasant effect of drinking tea is so speedy. Tea is a quick acting stimulant. Yet gentle and harmless. Delicious, refreshing, thirst-quenching, it soothes the tired nerves and gives you new vigor.

To make sure of good tea always, insist upon Maxwell House. Housewives know this brand as the best "tea insurance." No matter what your tea taste, Maxwell House will please you.

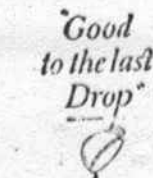

Drink tea when you're thirsty. It satisfies, and refreshes instantly. Drink it when you're hot. It cools you like magic. Drink tea when you're work-weary. It puts new pep in your day.

Drink tea in the morning, at noon, in the afternoon and evening. You'll feel better all day, if you do. And you'll be steadily cool and comfortable.

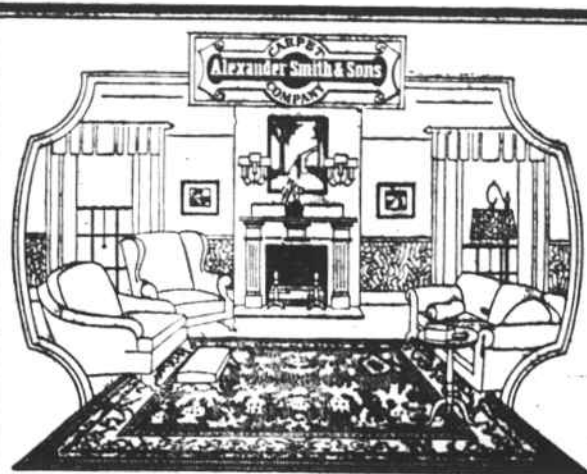

For sale at all the best grocery stores, in two-ounce, quarter-pound, half-pound and pound tins. Also in individual tea balls—250 and 500 to a carton.
