Mrs. Em Moots drew a good cantaloupe 'day. A good listener is usually thinkin' about something else.

A Word From Latham

"I wish I could see and thank all my friends in person or write each one a letter expressing my gratitude. However, you of course can see this is impossible. May I say to them through you that I am grateful indeed for every consideration accorded me." The foregoing quotation is from a personal letter to the editor of The Advance from F. P. Latham, candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture in the late primary. It is a pleasure to The Advance to pass along to its readers who voted for and supported Mr. Latham this word of appreciation from him.

Lindsay Warren of Beaufort and W. D. Pruden of Chowan are in conference with Chairman Page of the North Carolina Highway Commission in regard to the bill which it is proposed to introduce into this session of the Legislature providing for a bridge across the Chowan River from Emperor to Edenhouse. The Advance trusts that the conference will produce a bill that can pass and that will insure early construction of the proposed bridge on an equitable and satisfactory basis for all concerned.

The Advance is most happy to learn that the Kiwanis Club has kept in touch with the Harm o Foundation offer of free sites for playgrounds in growing towns and that the club is hopeful that Elizabeth City will be included among the towns that the foundation will aid this year. The Advance is hopeful, in turn, that the club will not be disappointed. Surely this playground matter has hung fire long enough.

Surely the Democratic party, after seeing the awful mess that the Republicans got themselves into by playing both ends against the middle on the League of Nations issue in 1920 would not think even victory at the polls this year would be worth paying such a price for.

With parking space daily at a higher and higher premium in Elizabeth City, wonder if the City Council could not provide, temporarily at least, public parking facilities on some of the down town vacant lots?

We see by our favorite Elizabeth City afternoon newspaper that President Coolidge tuned in on the Democratic Convention Tuesday afternoon. Well, our modest judgment is that he got an earful.

Democratic applause at the speech of Senator Pat Harrison had hardly ceased to echo through Madison Square Garden Tuesday afternoon before Advance subscribers at Belcross, Camden, Gregory, Shawboro and Moyock were reading The Associated Press report of the speech in The Daily Advance.

The Democratic Convention has the right of way in this newspaper while it is in session, which means, on a four page day, that some items of local news or personal mention must be crowded out. A serious effort will be made, however, to run all local news that is perishable and of the variety that will keep to get in tomorrow what is left out today.

Again we invite you, if you get a small town daily besides The Advance, to compare the convention service given by this newspaper yesterday with that of the neighbor publication. And we don't believe The Advance would suffer a great deal in comparison of its convention service with that of almost any North Carolina afternoon newspaper you might pick up.
