PASQUOTANK GIRLS TAKE SHORT COURSE

Misses Mary Hewitt of Newland and Vivian James of Sound Neck left Monday for Raleigh to attend the Short Course for Club Girls at State College.

These two girls were chosen by the Newland and Weeksville Girls Home Demonstrations Clubs to represent them in this school. Heretofore, the girls have won the trip to Raleigh in contests but this year the clubs were asked to send leaders rather than prize winners because the course is especially intended to train leaders in home demonstration work in the various counties of the State.

The expenses of the young women are paid by the First and Citizens National Bank, the Savings Bank and Trust Company, and the Carolina Banking and Trust Company. Great appreciation is expressed by the members of the girls club and by the home demonstration agent for the interest in the work shown by the banks in this practical and helpful manner.

Misses Hewitt and James will specialize in sewing and in food conservation in the Short Course. Both young women are already stars in breadmaking and will therefore give their attention to other subjects.

TWO COLORED WOMEN HAVE HORSE CAN'T CARE FOR

Only one case was up for trial in Wednesday morning's session of the recorder's court and that, after the evidence had been somewhat gone into, was continued to Friday.

The defendants were Jennie and Jessie Riddick, both colored, who were before Trial Justice Spence on a charge of cruelty to a dumb animal, a horse, which it appeared that they were keeping on their premises without giving the animal but very little attention and no shelter at all. They were given until Friday to sell or otherwise dispose of the horse, or else to provide the animal a suitable stable.

Prosecuting Attorney Elect J. H. LeRoy, Jr., acted as prosecuting attorney Wednesday morning in the absence of Prosecuting Attorney Sawyer, who is attending the Democratic Convention as delegate from this district, and of Assistant Prosecutor M. B. Simpson, who could not be present.

TO CAMP AGAIN AT OLD FAIR-GROUNDS

The club girls of Pasquotank, Perquimans and Chowan counties will again enjoy their summer camp at the Old Fair Grounds near Elizabeth City August 11-15 under the efficient care of the home demonstration agent, Miss Mabel Albertson, Miss Helen Gaither, and Miss Eliza Knight.

Winston Salem, June 25.—A shed in which dynamite for blasting was stored at a rock quarry near here was struck by lightning yesterday in a storm and the dynamite exploded killing the men who had taken refuge there from the storm.
