LIKE FATHER, LIKE DAUGHTER

It was Champ Clark's daughter who brought the "convention hat" to the Democratic National Convention. The former Governor Clark—now Mrs. James Thompson, of New Orleans—arrived wearing the Democratic emblem on her hat, as shown in the picture, and the fad soon caught on.

London, June 28.—A number of the new frocks shown here today have sashes. These sashes, in conformity with the tendency to leave the back of the gown undecorated, invariably fasten in front.

Paris, June 28.—Plaid still remain in favor today although the colors are a bit more subdued than in the spring. The plaid skirt of soft silk is becoming popular for sports wear.

London, June 28.—Once again the Vogue turns toward no stockings. Shoes for a long time have been little more than a scant handful of straps, and without stockings they should be extremely interesting.

New York, June 28.—Among the smart hosiery shown here this week is a shade of ivory faintly tinged with rose. It is a delightful color and looks its best with black shoes.

New York, June 28.—An attractive new blouse for hot weather wear being shown convention visitors is of very fine French voile in pale blue. It is trimmed with a number of rows of wide Irish lace.

Georgia Lady Says She Has Grown Stronger by Taking Cardui—Thoroughly Convinced of Its Merits.

Clyattville, Ga.—In a statement which she gave at her home on R. F. D. 1, here, Mrs. T. A. Copeland said: "I have, I believe, avoided a good deal of suffering by the use of Cardui, and am thoroughly convinced that it has been of great benefit to me.

"Before the birth of two of my children, I grew so weak and nervous I could hardly go, and suffered . . . I had a friend who told me of Cardui, so the next time when I grew so weak and run-down I began to use it. I used it three months. I grew stronger and less nervous. The baby was stronger and a better baby, and I really believe it was because I built up my strength with this splendid tonic."

Cardui has been in successful use for more than forty years. Thousands of women have written to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others.

It is a mild, harmless, purely vegetable medicinal preparation—a product of practical experience, scientific investigation and pharmaceutical skill. Sold everywhere. NO-129
