Fashion News Notes

(Copyright, 1924, by The Advance)
Paris, Sept. 10.—Faille is so much in favor just now that few other fabrics are seen. The only rival is satin back crepe.

London, Sept. 10.—Though early autumn is upon us, the vogue for white felt hats is as strong as ever. Some times they permit themselves a bit of black decoration.

London, Sept. 10.—The boyish fringe bob remains very much in style right now, but with a difference. The difference is seen at night, for a surprisingly large number of women are having their hair treated so that in the dark it gives off a phosphorescent glow.

New York, Sept. 10.—No matter what color or kind the glove is today it has an elaborate gauntlet. If it is a short glove, and no gauntlet whatever if it is long. Nothing is smarter than gloves of flesh tinted kidskin.

Comfort In The Evening
Although the evening may be a bit chilly, you can be very comfortable by using a gas heating stove. The same is true for the breakfast hour. And how attractive these heaters are!
