

WALKER'S NOT TAKING CHANCE

He's Training as Carefully for Battle with Bobbie Barret as He Did for Benny Leonard.

New York, Sept. 29.—Mickey Walker has been training as hard for next week's battle with Bobbie Barret in Philadelphia, as he would have trained for Benny Leonard.

And the pride of Kereghed shows in so doing that he is a wise lad. Barret has improved a great deal of late and even Philadelphia, whose local pride does swallow their judgment, believe that Bobbie is qualified to put up a great battle.

Mickey Walker has shown in Philly and the manner in which he beat up Lew Tindler was very impressive. The general opinion is that Walker did better against Tindler than Barret did and it didn't take much thinking to establish such a state of mind.

In other words it was clear to all who saw the two battles—that he was going to have only a workout? If Bobbie should mingle with Mickey in his well known manner something would happen to some one. That is a cinch. And when something is liable to happen to some one it is always an appealing proposition to the customers.

New York fans may well envy Philadelphia the opportunity of seeing this mixup between two battling Irishmen.

Question—A punt strikes a player of the punting side. May it then be recovered by members of the punting side?

Answer—No, punted ball may be recovered in this case because of the rule which states that no player of the kicking side may touch the ball after it has crossed the line of scrimmage until after it touches an opponent. If a punter drives the ball into his own line, he, not over the line of scrimmage, then it is common property.

FOR THE GAME'S SAKE

BY LAWRENCE PERRY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Advance) New York, Sept. 29.—Two elements annually combine to detract from the drama of the opening of the football season. Professional baseball always comes to crescendo along about now and, besides, most colleges select as opponents teams of inferior, comparatively inferior merit.

As a consequence, the gridiron season generally comes into being as mildly, as unobtrusively as the most shrinking of spring violets. Down in Dixie this year exceptions to the usual cut and dried opening day in football. In fact the season there opened with an unaccustomed detonation.

In a paragraph written a fortnight ago the writer brought out the point that the rules forbid the ball being held for the kick off. The basis for this statement was Rule 8 section 2 which holds that the kickers side shall be behind the ball when it is kicked. If it should be pointed out that at its recent interpretation meeting in New York the rules committee decided that one man may be off-side to hold the ball for the player who kicks off. This man shall not be regarded as being off-side.

Every year there is graduated from Notre-Dame a band of star football players who scatter into coaching jobs North, East, South and West.

Every summer the ardent enthusiasts of South-Bend where Knute Rockne could be mayor, if he cared to hold that office—fill the air with rejoicing over this season's outlook. And while pessimism is thus abroad Rockne goes bilthely ahead and arranges a schedule that is tougher than the one of the previous year.

Which inclines one to the belief that South-Bend's annual tale of woe is more or less a pre-arranged matter. For every year by the time October is well established the world knows that the South Bend institution has turned out another real eleven.

In truth Notre Dame always has several real elevens. No one man seems to be essential in the Roche scheme of things. If a star goes out for one reason or another he has a waiting start to slip into his place. Nebraska, the Army, Princeton, Wisconsin, Georgia Tech are among the teams the Mid-Western Irishmen meet this season.
