

Hundreds Come Forward At Very First Invitation

Inquiry Room at Big Pine Temple Crowded Friday Night When Evangelist Ham Asks Those Concerned About Salvation to Meet Him in After Meeting

Like the rush of pent up waters when the flood gate has been lifted, a throng of young people, old people and middle aged people streamed down the aisles of the Ham-Ramsay tabernacle last night to shake the evangelist's hand and pass into the inquiry room when M. F. Ham, now nearing the close of the third week of his evangelistic campaign here, extended his first invitation of the meeting to those concerned about their salvation to come forward and meet him in an after-service where he could point them to "the way, the truth and the light."

SEC'Y WALLACE IS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Washington, Oct. 25.—Secretary Wallace was said this afternoon to be "very low." His physician said he was "just barely alive."

RUSSIAN CHARGE MAKES PROTEST

London, Oct. 25.—Christian Rakovsky, Soviet Russian charge d'affaires at London, today sent a strong protest to the foreign office characterizing as "obnoxious forgery" the propaganda letter allegedly signed by President Zinoviev of the Third International which was appended to the protest against alleged Russian propaganda in Great Britain submitted yesterday by the foreign office to Rakovsky.

FIND NO TRACE OF JAMES AND WIFE

Norfolk, Oct. 25.—Though heavily armed posses continued their search no trace yet has been found of Frank James and his wife, who disappeared after James invaded the home of his wife's parents, shot her brother and father and carried her forcibly away.

HELD FOR MURDER

Richmond, Oct. 25.—Milton Blackman whose wife died last night from wounds inflicted during the mysterious shooting last Friday at the home here, was arrested on a warrant charging murder and moved to the city jail. Blackman was also wounded and claims that his wife shot him. The inquest is to be held today. Blackman was formerly a resident of Eufaula, Alabama.

COTTON FORECAST

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cotton production this year was today forecast at 12,675,000 bales as compared with 12,459,000 bales of a fortnight ago and a crop of 10,139,671 bales last year.

TUG ARM AND HAMMER DID NOT PASS JENNIE B

"The tug Arm and Hammer was in North Landing River at the upper end of Currituck Sound on Wednesday night," says Captain G. M. Hughes, master of the vessel, in reply to the suggestion that his tug passed the Jennie B. Highway Commission launch, which the latter vessel was grounded near the mouth of the Alligator River, without noting the launch's distress signal.

How to Get the Money

An interesting announcement from Chorister Ramsay in his talk just prior to the offering was that collections to date on the expenses of the campaign amounted to less than $1800, whereas expenses will run up to around $5,000, the bill for lumber and local labor alone on the tabernacle being $3,000. Mr. Ramsay again made his proposition for those who were willing to contribute a dollar on the campaign within the next week to stand.

SHOW THE BRITISH BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL

London, Oct. 25.—The New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox in their second exhibition game in England gave several thousand British fans a real demonstration of big league baseball yesterday, the Giants winning the game in the ninth by a 3 to 2 score.

DRY WIN ELECTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—Secretary Wallace lost ground during the night in his fight against teetotalism poisoning which set in yesterday after an operation last week for removal of his appendix and gall bladder.

HANDSHAKE MAY MEAN HARMONY

James Stillman at Any Rate Forgives Wife Long Enough to See Daughter Married.

TRUSTEES EXPEL NUMBER SENIORS

Clemson College, S. C., Oct. 25.—Twenty-three members of the senior class at Clemson College were expelled outright and four seniors and 108 juniors were suspended for the remainder of the scholastic year for participation in last week's walkout by the board of trustees which made public its action last night after five days' investigation.

Family Race

A formal race between James Stillman and his wife! Withdrawing of all legal proceedings to obtain a reversal of the court order granting her divorce and recognizing the legitimacy of their youngest son. Breakfast shared by husband and wife at Mondanane before the wedding ceremony. Cordially unbounded between the two, arguing a complete reconciliation, the papers cried at the ceremony.

HERE IS TRAGEDY SHIP

This is the scuttler Trenton floundering in the latest navy explosion off Cape Henry. An officer and four men were killed outright and a score injured, many of whom died later. The blast, occurring during target practice, was in the forward twin gun mount and radio room. It is believed to have been caused by a flareback from one of the six-inch guns.

BEAMAN HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Secretary Wilson Chamber of Commerce Will Present the Port and Terminals Measure.

CLOSES CONSULATES IN GREAT BRITAIN

Mexico City, Oct. 25.—The most recent consular step in Mexican diplomacy was taken here yesterday when the foreign affairs department ordered the closing of the Mexican consulates at London, Liverpool, and Glasgow as well as honorary consular offices throughout Great Britain. This means complete suppression of commercial relations with Britain.

SENIORS WRITE AND WILL PRODUCE PLAY

South Mills, Oct. 25.—With the history of wheelcraft in this country as a basis the senior class of South Mills High School has written a play.

ALBERT FALL MADE AN EARLY START

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Two weeks after former Secretary Albert B. Fall of the Department of the Interior took office, he called specifically for information that would acquaint him with the naval oil reserve. It was revealed here yesterday in the trial in Federal Court of the Government's suit for cancellation of the lease in the Elk Hills naval oil reserve which is charged the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company obtained through fraud and conspiracy.

ALBERT FALL MADE AN EARLY START

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Two weeks after former Secretary Albert B. Fall of the Department of the Interior took office, he called specifically for information that would acquaint him with the naval oil reserve. It was revealed here yesterday in the trial in Federal Court of the Government's suit for cancellation of the lease in the Elk Hills naval oil reserve which is charged the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company obtained through fraud and conspiracy.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

BEAMAN HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Secretary Wilson Chamber of Commerce Will Present the Port and Terminals Measure.

CLOSES CONSULATES IN GREAT BRITAIN

Mexico City, Oct. 25.—The most recent consular step in Mexican diplomacy was taken here yesterday when the foreign affairs department ordered the closing of the Mexican consulates at London, Liverpool, and Glasgow as well as honorary consular offices throughout Great Britain. This means complete suppression of commercial relations with Britain.

SENIORS WRITE AND WILL PRODUCE PLAY

South Mills, Oct. 25.—With the history of wheelcraft in this country as a basis the senior class of South Mills High School has written a play.

ALBERT FALL MADE AN EARLY START

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Two weeks after former Secretary Albert B. Fall of the Department of the Interior took office, he called specifically for information that would acquaint him with the naval oil reserve. It was revealed here yesterday in the trial in Federal Court of the Government's suit for cancellation of the lease in the Elk Hills naval oil reserve which is charged the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company obtained through fraud and conspiracy.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

Treasury In Turmoil By Publication Tax Returns

Not Since Discovery of the Doherty Loan to Fall Has Official Washington Been So Shocked as When New York Newspapers Turned Light on Big Incomes

CANNOT DECIDE BEFORE MONDAY

Washington, Oct. 25.—Newspapers can expect no guiding suggestion from the Government within 48 hours to aid them in determining whether they can publish facts relating to income tax payments without violation of the law.

BREAK IN MARKET FOLLOWS REPORT

New York, Oct. 25.—A bearish interpretation was given the Government cotton report today, especially figures on ginning. There was a break in prices of 85 points after its publication.

CHINESE PRESIDENT AND CABINET QUIT

Peking, Oct. 25.—Tao Ku'ng-han resigned the presidency of the central Chinese government today. It is understood that General Feng Yu-hsiang who is in control of the capital has instructed the cabinet to carry on.

MANY CHIMNEY FIRES

Every day this week except Monday the fire department has answered a call of which nearly all were chimney fires. Sunday at 3:45 p. m. a still alarm was given and a fire caused by some careless smoker was extinguished at Cartwright's store, corner Shepard street and Southern avenue, before serious damage was done. Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. a still alarm was given because of a chimney fire on Cherry street at the home of St. Dandersob. There was no damage done. Tuesday at 6:45 the company was called by an alarm from box 41 to a chimney fire at the home of E. I. Spence on McPherson street. No damage. Wednesday at 9:50 a. m. a still alarm was given for a chimney fire at the home of Miss Mardene-Albertson on West Church street. No damage. Thursday at 8:40 p. m. a house owned by Mrs. Ossie Combs on West Church street, in which no damage was done. The alarm was given from box 41. Friday a false alarm was given from box 41 at 8:40 p. m. on West Church street.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.

AT BEDSIDE BROTHER

Mrs. C. C. Clark, North Road street, is at the bedside of her brother-in-law, T. E. Coulter, who is in a critical condition at the Kane Summit Hospital as a result of an automobile accident October 16, in which his daughter, Miss Ruth Coulter, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur Coulter, and grandson, Glenn Coulter, were killed when struck by a west-bound express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a highway crossing at Wetmore. Their bodies were taken on a special train Saturday to Warren, Pennsylvania, where interment was made in the family burying ground. Mr. Coulter is an uncle of Mrs. J. Howard Kramer and Miles Clark of this city. This is said to have been the worst motoring accident to have occurred in that vicinity.